Eight teams in each conference qualify for NBA Playoffs 2006 which begin on Saturday, April 22. The division winner with the best record in each conference is ranked No. 1, the other division winners are ranked No. 2 and No. 3 in order of their won-lost record and the remaining five teams are ranked Nos. 4-8 according to their won-lost records. The team with the better regular season won-lost record has home-court advantage in each round of the playoffs.

The Phoenix Suns welcome you to NBA Playoffs 2006. The Suns are making their 16th postseason appearance in the last 18 seasons and the 26th in the team's 38-year history…The Suns have made two trips to the NBA Finals (1976, '93) and have appeared in seven Western Conference Finals (1976, '79, '84, '89, '90, '93, '05). This guide contains information that will help your coverage throughout our playoff run. If you have any questions or requests, please call us.

CREDENTIAL GUIDELINES:
Home - Regular season credentials are not transferable and do not guarantee admittance to Suns games during the playoffs. Regular season credentials are not valid for home playoff games (first three rounds only) until they have received the proper playoff accreditation. Single-game credential requests should be made by the sports editor or director in writing on company letterhead at least 36 hours prior to each playoff game or series. They should be submitted to DC Headley by e-mail to dcheadley@suns.com or fax at (602) 379-7908. All requests for photographers (television and print) should be received the day before each home game. NO WALKUP CREDENTIALS WILL BE ISSUED ON GAME DAY WITHOUT PRIOR APPROVAL. The Suns Basketball Communications department will call to confirm the status of all single-game credential requests. Please understand we have limited seating.

Road - All media traveling on the road to cover the Suns in the playoffs should make their credential requests to Julie Fie via fax (602) 379-7908 or e-mail at jfie@suns.com (copy Sherry Reed with all requests at sreed@suns.com). Please include the names of all traveling personnel and the name, address and telephone number of the hotel they will be staying at in the visiting city. A complete Phoenix list will be forwarded to the Suns opponent prior to the first game of each round. See below for the Suns road hotels for potential Western Conference opponents. Please refer to NBA Blue Book for additional hotels.

PHOTO ASSIGNMENTS: Beginning with the playoffs, photographers (print and electronic) will be assigned locations on the floor. Please contact DC Headley if you have specific floor assignment needs. All photographers will need to check in at media will call (NE entrance of US Airways Center, 3rd St. and Jefferson) to secure a photo armband and assigned floor location. The Atlantic Room is the print and electronic photography work area during the playoffs. Individual game strobe requests should be directed to Julie Fie at (602) 379-7916.

PRACTICE SCHEDULE/MEDIA AVAILABILITY: Practices and shootarounds will have media availability in accordance with NBA policy. A tentative schedule will be distributed before each series. You are encouraged to check with the Basketball Communications department to confirm these times.

PHONE & FAXING: For any additional phone lines during the playoffs, you must contact Vicki Berryman at (602) 379-2099. The Suns Basketball Communications department will provide faxing service.

LOCKER ROOM ACCESS: Access will be restricted to working media with proper credentials. As in the regular season, both locker rooms will be open beginning 90 minutes before the game, and remain open up until 45 minutes prior to the game. They will re-open 15 minutes following the game.

PRE-AND-POSTGAME COACHES MEDIA AVAILABILITY: Pre-and-postgame coaches media availability is in the Pacific Room at home. Designated area on the road.

JERRY COLANGELO

CHAIRMAN AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Throughout his storied career as a sports executive, Jerry Colangelo has succeeded with a unique combination of know-how both on the basketball court and on the business side of the operation. That savvy and experience is what makes him one of the top executives in professional sports.

Colangelo, who has been the face of the Suns franchise since their inaugural season in 1968, unveiled a plan for the Suns future that included the sale of the team for an NBA record $401 million in April 2004. Banking and real estate executive Robert Sarver, an Arizona native, became the major investor and managing partner of the new ownership group that will purchase the Suns over a three-year span. Colangelo will remain as CEO and Chairman until the sale of the team is complete in June 2007, and then will retain the title of chairman for at least another five years beyond that.

Colangelo's impact on the sports scene in Phoenix and the game of basketball has been so great he was elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in April 2004 and enshrined on Sept. 10, 2004 in Springfield, Mass., the birthplace of basketball. Locally, the Arizona Republic named him the Most Influential Sports Figure in the state of Arizona for the 20th century and the Phoenix Business Journal voted him the top businessperson in the Valley for the last five years. Nationally, Colangelo has been among The Sporting News most powerful people in sports for over the last decade and he was appointed to the newly-created position of Managing Director of the USA Basketball Men's Senior National Team program for the 2005-2008 quadrennium in April 2005.

Since first moving to the Valley of the Sun in 1968 to take over the expansion Phoenix NBA franchise as the youngest general manager in professional sports, Colangelo has molded the Phoenix Suns into one of the most successful organizations -- on and off the court -- in the NBA. In addition, he brought Major League Baseball to the Valley in 1998 and was chairman of the 2001 World Champion Arizona Diamondbacks. Colangelo also was the key element in facilitating the move of the NHL's Winnipeg Jets to the Valley of the Sun to become the Phoenix Coyotes.

The former Chairman of the NBA's Board of Governors, Colangelo has had influence on the growth of the NBA as a member of the league's Finance Committee, Long Range Planning Committee, Expansion Committee and Competition and Rules Committee. Commissioner David Stern turned to Colangelo to chair a special group in the 2000-01 season that evaluated the state of the game and made rules modifications. Colangelo was also the chair of the committee that welcomed Toronto and Vancouver to the NBA and chair of the relocation committee charged with the Charlotte Hornets move to New Orleans. In 2003, he helped bring an NBA franchise back to the city of Charlotte, which was awarded the NBA's 30th franchise, the expansion Bobcats, that began play in the 2004-05 season.

"Jerry Colangelo has been involved in every aspect of our business and is universally accepted as the principal basketball expert among our Board of Governors," Stern said.

With the Suns, his roles have included general manager, head coach, president and now chairman and chief executive officer. The 38-year tenure with one franchise is the second longest in the NBA, behind only Boston's Red Auerbach, who has been an NBA fixture since the league's inception in 1946. Colangelo spent two seasons with the Chicago Bulls working as marketing director, scout and assistant to the president before moving to the Valley to help start the expansion Suns.

Phoenix owns the fourth-best all-time winning percentage with a 1698-1386 (.551) mark, trailing only the Lakers (.615, 2806-1759), Boston (.593, 2770-1905) and San Antonio (.591, 1435-993). Colangelo has collected an unprecedented four NBA Executive of the Year awards (1993, '89, '81, '76). During that period the Suns enjoyed seven consecutive 50-plus win seasons from 1988 to 1995, including a franchise-best 62 wins in 1992-93 and a trip to the 1993 NBA Finals.

On two occasions Colangelo stepped in to coach the Suns, including the 1969-70 season when he guided the club to a 24-20 mark down the stretch and to its first playoff appearance. He also took over in 1972-73 and compiled a 35-40 mark. Overall, Colangelo is 59-60 as an NBA coach.

The state of the franchise was in question in 1987 but Colangelo stepped up and coordinated a group of investors that purchased the club for $44.5 million on October 14, 1987. That transaction was the first of many that helped Colangelo not only stabilize the basketball organization but also transform downtown Phoenix into an active and thriving district.

Colangelo quickly moved on a new arena for the Suns and in April 1989 the city of Phoenix approved the concept of a new, state-of-the-art arena in downtown that would house the team. The 18,422-seat US Airways Center (formerly known as America West Arena) opened in June 1992 and became the first venue in the NBA to also house a full-size practice facility, an amenity now common in the league. The arena is a public-private partnership with the City of Phoenix and has played host to a wide variety of concerts, family shows and sporting events, including the 1995 NBA All-Star Game and the 2000 WNBA All-Star Game.

The US Airways Center has recently undergone a $70 million renovation that includes the addition of an entertainment paseo, the Casino Arizona Pavilion, and new LED, scoreboard and sound system.

Colangelo added to his NBA involvement with a position on the founding committee for the WNBA, helping advance professional women's basketball in the United States. The Phoenix Mercury were one of the WNBA's inaugural teams in 1997. The Mercury set a league attendance record in their first season, advanced to the 1998 WNBA Finals and qualified for the playoffs three times.

When a group targeted Major League Baseball as a possibility for the Valley, Colangelo was asked to become the lead player in securing a team for Phoenix. That bid was successful in 1995 and shortly thereafter Chase Field (formerly known as Bank One Ballpark) broke ground in downtown Phoenix in a public-private partnership with Maricopa County.

As with the NBA, Colangelo was involved with the governing of baseball, serving on the Legislative Committee, Equal Opportunity Committee and on the board of directors of the MLB Advanced Media, the technology arm of the league.

The Arizona Diamondbacks began play in 1998 and captured the 2001 World Series in a historic seven-game series against the three-time defending champion New York Yankees. Going from expansion team to World Champion in just four years was a record for Major League Baseball. Arizona won the National League West in just its second season to become the fastest expansion team in baseball history to qualify for the postseason, just as the Suns did in their second season in 1969-70.

Just down the street from the sports facilities, the Dodge Theater opened in April 2002 and hosts a variety of events from concerts to Broadway plays, including boxing, family shows and corporate events. This $35 million downtown venue has the versatility to expand its capacity to as large as 5,000 or scale down to an intimate 3,000 and is another project spearheaded by Colangelo.

Colangelo's commitment to the Valley transcends sports and he is well-known as one of the city's most active community leaders. In recognition of his efforts in the community, Phoenix mayor Phil Gordon proclaimed March 26, 2004, Jerry Colangelo Day in the city of Phoenix. The Valley of the Sun United Way also bestowed its highest honor, the Spirit of Caring award, to Colangelo on June 30, 2005 for his passion for improving lives in the community.

The author of a book titled How You Play the Game, Colangelo gives insight into the world of the business of sports and his own life. Proceeds of the book sales went to Young Life of Arizona, Phoenix Suns Charities and Arizona Diamondbacks Charities.

Colangelo prepped at Bloom Township High in Chicago Heights, Ill., where he was an All-State basketball honoree as a senior. A left-hander, Colangelo was the top pitcher on the baseball team that also featured former Yankee hurler Jim Bouton. Upon graduation he had 66 scholarship offers for college basketball and seven for professional baseball contracts.

He enrolled at the University of Kansas, but transferred after his prospective teammate, Wilt Chamberlain, left the Jayhawks for a pro contract. Colangelo transferred to the University of Illinois, where he earned All-Big Ten honors, captained the Illini as a senior and was later inducted into the Illinois Basketball Hall of Fame. He also played two years of baseball at Illinois.

Born November 20, 1939, Colangelo grew up in the "Hungry Hill" neighborhood of Chicago Heights. His ties to "The Heights" and Bloom Township are evident in the Jerry Colangelo Gymnasium, dedicated in his honor November 10, 1996, and Colangelo Way, a street named after him. The recently constructed Colangelo Center in Chicago will house the Italian-American Athletic Hall of Fame.

Colangelo and his wife, Joan, whom he met on a blind date while at the University of Illinois, have four children: Kathy Holcombe, Kristen Brubaker, Bryan, and Mandie Colangelo, and six granddaughters and four grandsons, all of Phoenix.

ROBERT SARVER

MANAGING PARTNER

Success has followed Arizona native Robert G. Sarver in every stage of his career and his golden touch extended to his first two seasons with the Phoenix Suns.

The self-made entrepreneur embarked on another challenge as the new majority owner of the Phoenix Suns in 2004-05 and the Suns enjoyed unparalleled success in his inaugural season as the club tied a franchise record with an NBA-best 62 wins and posted the third-greatest turnaround in league history. In his two years with the Suns, Phoenix has a cumulative record of 116-48 (.707).

The banking and real estate executive spearheaded an investment group that purchased the Suns, the oldest professional sports franchise in the Valley, for an NBA record $401 million on June 30, 2004.

Sarver, who became the youngest person ever to found a national bank at the age of 23, grew up a Suns fan and attended games as a youth at Veterans Memorial Coliseum after receiving tickets as birthday gifts from Donald Diamond, one of the original owners (Richard Bloch and Donald Pitt).

Sarver's friendly and down-to-earth demeanor has helped him close numerous deals in the banking and real estate industry. He is currently Chairman and CEO of Western Alliance Bancorporation, one of the fastest growing bank holding companies in the country. He is also the founder of Southwest Value Partners (SVP); a real estate investment company that has acquired four million square feet of commercial office space, 3,500 apartments, 700 hotel rooms, shopping centers, commercial mortgages and over 2,000 acres of land in the last 15 years.

A 1979 graduate of Sabino High School in Tucson, Sarver spent the first 35 years of his life in Arizona before moving to San Diego and has demonstrated a commitment to community and philanthropic contributions. Sarver and his wife recently donated $1 million to help build the Phoenix Family Museum, which is scheduled to be completed in May 2007.

Sarver sits on the Board of Trustees of the Sarver Heart Center at the University of Arizona, which he helped build, in memory of his late father, Jack, who was among the first in an experimental group to undergo bypass surgery. The center now houses over 40 physicians and researchers dedicated to fighting heart disease. He is also on the Board of Trustees of the Japanese American National Museum.

Introduced to the banking industry at 16, he worked part time at the end of his school day as a mortgage loan agent and internal auditor at American Savings for his late father, a well-known banker and hotel owner. A 1982 graduate of the University of Arizona, Sarver earned his bachelor's degree in business administration, and became a certified public accountant in 1983.

After founding the National Bank of Arizona in 1984, Sarver served as president until its sale to the Zions Bancorporation in 1994. Prior to the sale, National Bank of Arizona had become the largest independent bank in the state.

In 1995, Sarver led a group of investors in acquiring Grossmont Bank, San Diego's largest community bank. He was the Chairman and CEO of the holding company before its sale to the Zions Bancorporation in 1998.

Sarver led Zions' acquisition of Sumitomo Bank of California and merged the company with Grossmont, renaming it the California Bank and Trust, and became the Chairman and CEO in 1998. In 2002, he sold California Bank and Trust back to Zions.

He currently serves as director of SkyWest Airlines and is director of Meritage Corporation, which he is also a major shareholder. The Phoenix-based Meritage is one of the largest homebuilders in the country spanning six states (Arizona, California, Colorado, Florida, Nevada, Texas). A lifelong sports fan, Sarver's quest to purchase an NBA team began with a conversation with University of Arizona basketball coach Lute Olson, a friend of Sarver's since 1980. Olson referred Sarver to Steve Kerr, a former player at Arizona and a 15-year NBA veteran, to assist him in buying an NBA franchise.

Sarver has a 9 handicap in golf and plays tennis and volleyball in his spare time. During his first date with his eventual wife, Penny Sanders, he invited her to watch the NCAA Basketball Tournament at his house.

He and his wife, a Kansas City, Mo. native, have three boys: Max, Jake and Zach.

SAM GARVIN

VICE CHAIRMAN

Born and raised in Pittsburgh, Pa., Sam Garvin completed his bachelor of arts degree with a dual major in political science and german studies at the University of Pittsburgh in three years. After serving in the Reagan Administration as a staff assistant on the Presidential Commission for the German-American Tri-Centennial, he began working for Heinz U.S.A. as a sales merchandiser where he learned the marketing of packaged goods from the ground up. In 1988 when he was 24, he graduated from Thunderbird, the American Graduate School of International Management, with a Masters of International Management specializing in marketing. After a short stint at a promotion fulfillment firm, he started CPG from the trunk of his car, borrowing from credit cards to get seed money. In 1989 he became a Suns fan by purchasing single game tickets in the upper bowl from a friend and continued coming to Suns games at every opportunity over the next sixteen years.

From 1989 until 2005 Sam served as Chairman and CEO of Continental Promotion Group. During his tenure he grew the company from zero to over $1.2 billon in gross revenues, managed over 1200 associates, and opened substantial new markets internationally including Canada, Mexico, The European Union, Australia, and Singapore. Sam organized and executed consumer and trade promotions for Dell, Nestle, Henkel, Costco, BT (British Telecom), HP, Motorola, Disney and Eli Lilly on a global scale. In 1998 Sam was recognized by the Phoenix Business Journal as one of Arizona's " Top 40 under 40" most influential business leaders under the age of forty. In 1999 he was recognized by Arizona Governor Jane Hull with the "Governor's Spirit of Success" award. He was twice nominated for Ernst and Young's "Entrepreneur of the Year" award". In June 2005 he successfully sold CPG in a management led buyout.

In 2003, Mr. Garvin was awarded a Doctor of International Law degree (Honoris Causa) from Thunderbird, the American Graduate School of International Management. He is currently a member of the Board of Trustees at Thunderbird and is a Trustee at Phoenix Country Day School (PCDS). In June 2004, Mr. Garvin purchased his interest in The Phoenix Suns and currently serves on the Executive Management Board of The Phoenix Suns. Other boards he serves on include Phoenix Suns Charities, and AliLaur LLC. Sam has a keen interest in venture capital and is a Limited Partner in several Sequoia Capital funds. He also is active in real estate and private equity investing through Garvin Holdings, LLC. He resides in Paradise Valley with his wife Rita and three children. Sam can be reached at sgarvin@suns.com

RICK WELTS

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

As president and chief operating officer, Rick Welts supervises all business operations of the Phoenix Suns and oversees the club's interests in Phoenix Arena Development, managing company of the US Airways Center, and Phoenix Arena Sports, owning entity of the Phoenix Mercury (WNBA) and Phoenix Roadrunners (East Coast Hockey League).

Welts, who is in his fourth season with Phoenix, recently signed a contract extension that will keep him with the organization through at least the 2008-09 season.

Welts served successful stints previously in professional basketball with the NBA league office and the Seattle SuperSonics. His association with the NBA office spanned from 1982-99 until he departed as the league's executive vice president, chief marketing officer and president of NBA Properties. Welts helped guide the revitalization of the league and its image through strong marketing initiated by the NBA and he is credited with the creation of the NBA All-Star Weekend concept in 1984, now a league highlight and a standard in both the National Hockey League and Major League Baseball. He was also responsible for the 1992 Olympics "Dream Team" marketing program as the agent for USA Basketball. In 1998, Brandweek magazine named Welts "Marketer of the Year" for his role in creating and launching the WNBA. It was an honor he shared with former WNBA President Val Ackerman.

During his tenure at the NBA office Welts supervised league departments including corporate sponsorship and media sales, consumer products, media relations, community relations, team services, special events, creative services, and retail including the NBA Store and the "NBA City" restaurant. He was also responsible for the NBA's international business activities, from placing preseason games in foreign countries to opening the league's first international office in Australia to supervising six regional offices and 75 international employees in Asia, Europe, Australia, Mexico and Canada.

Recruited in 1982 by David Stern, then the NBA's executive vice president for business and legal affairs, Welts joined the NBA as director of national promotions for NBA Properties (NBAP). He established the corporate sponsorship department for the league and in 1983 was named vice president of marketing, NBAP. When Stern became NBA commissioner in February 1984, he promoted Welts to vice president, marketing and communications. Four years later he was promoted again to president of NBA Properties, responsible for virtually all the league's off-court revenue businesses and marketing activities. He added the title of NBA executive vice president and chief marketing officer in 1996.

In April 2006, he was named the winner of the 2006 Splaver/McHugh "Tribute to Excellence" Award, given annually by the NBA Public Relations Directors' Association to a current or former member of the NBA public relations family who has demonstrated an outstanding level of performance and service during his or her NBA career.

Welts entered the world of the NBA in 1969 as a ball boy for the Seattle SuperSonics. He remained with the Sonics for 10 years in several different capacities, including director of public relations during Seattle's back-to-back trips to the NBA Finals and the club's lone NBA Championship in 1979.

Following his stint with the Sonics he moved in 1979 to Bob Walsh & Associates, one of the first sports marketing firms in the United States. As vice president, he was involved in creating the first sports subscription cable service (Sonics SuperChannel) as well as representing athletes in the NBA, MLB and NFL.

Welts left the NBA in June 1999 to become president of Fox Sports Enterprises, a new entity that managed Fox interests in facilities and sports teams including the Los Angeles Dodgers, Dodger Stadium, STAPLES Center, the Los Angeles Kings, Madison Square Garden, the New York Knicks and New York Rangers.

In June 2001 along with two partners, Casey Wasserman and Gary Stevenson, Welts became a partner in a sports consulting firm, ONSPORT. Prior to that start-up venture he served as president for one year of "First In Line," a joint venture between USA Network's TicketMaster & SFX.

MIKE D'ANTONI

HEAD COACH/EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS AND GENERAL MANAGER — 4TH NBA SEASON, 3RD W/SUNS

After guiding the Suns to an improbable 54-28 finish in 2005-06, the fourth-best record in the NBA, Mike D'Antoni (dan-TONE-ee) has positioned himself to repeat as the NBA Coach of the Year, which no NBA coach has ever done. Despite a crippling preseason injury to All-Star Amaré Stoudemire and an overhauled roster that included only three active players from last season's roster (Steve Nash, Shawn Marion, Leandro Barbosa), D'Antoni guided the Suns to their second consecutive Pacific Division title, marking the first time in franchise history the club has won back-to-back division titles.

Since taking over 21 games into the 2003-04 season, D'Antoni has led Phoenix to a 137-88 record (.609), which trails only Paul Westphal (.685) and Cotton Fitzsimmons (.621) in franchise history. In his first two full seasons, D'Antoni's Suns have had the league's top-scoring offense in scoring in both seasons and posted a 116-48 record (.707). His success earned him additional responsibilities this season as he was appointed Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations and General Manager of the Phoenix Suns on March 10, 2006. USA Basketball also appointed him to the Men's Senior National Team Program coaching staff for 2006-08.

D'Antoni's passion for basketball has given him an up-close view of the world and his love for the sport has taken him from the mountains of West Virginia to the professional ranks of the NBA and ABA, and across Italy and throughout Europe. Those attributes helped make him the 2004-05 NBA Coach of the Year.

In his first full season as head coach of the Suns in 2004-05, D'Antoni engineered the third-largest turnaround in NBA history last season, and directed the Suns to a club record-tying 62 wins, a remarkable 33-game improvement from the 2003-04 season.

D'Antoni, who is the second coach in team history to be honored as NBA Coach of the Year (Cotton Fitzsimmons, 1988-89), boldly decided to stick with a run-and-gun lineup in 2004-05 that featured no true center and an All-Star small forward (Marion) playing out of position at power forward. The experiment paid off almost instantly as the Suns raced out to a 31-4 start and finished with the most explosive offense in the last decade as the Suns became the first NBA team since 1994-95 to average over 110 points per game (110.4). Furthermore, the team's 16.2 point increase from the 2003-04 season (94.2), ranked as the largest increase in team scoring since the advent of the shot clock in 1954-55.

Long regarded as an excellent teacher and communicator, D'Antoni was named the franchise's 12th head coach in team history on Dec. 10, 2003 after replacing Frank Johnson. In his first season as head coach of the Suns, D'Antoni guided the NBA's youngest roster to a 21-40 mark, despite inheriting a completely revamped roster due to several midseason trades and a team riddled with injuries. D'Antoni, who came to the Suns with a reputation of being an offensive guru, installed an up-tempo style of play as the Suns increased their scoring by more than three points per game after the coaching change.

D'Antoni's resume includes over three decades of pro basketball experience as a player, coach, front office executive and scout in the NBA, ABA and the Italian League. This is the second NBA head coaching stint for D'Antoni, who served as head coach for the Denver Nuggets in the NBA shortened-lockout season in 1998-99 and was the club's director of player personnel in 1997-98. The two-time NBA Western Conference Coach of the Month (December 2004, February 2006) was also on the bench for Portland as an assistant coach under Mike Dunleavy in the 2000-01 season and was a scout for San Antonio during the 1999-00 campaign. In addition, D'Antoni was an analyst for NBA.com following the 1998-99 regular season and worked as an analyst for the pay-per-view broadcasts of Team USA throughout the 2003 FIBA Americas Men's Olympic Tournament in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Prior to joining the Suns staff on June 25, 2002 as the lead assistant coach, D'Antoni coached Benetton Treviso of the Italian League and led the club to the Italian League championship after a 28-8 season in 2001-02. His team included former Sun Charlie Bell, ex-NBA player Tyus Edney and 2002 NBA top 15 draftees and current Sun Nikoloz Tskitishvili (fifth to Denver) and Bostjan Nachbar (15th to Houston).

An Italian League legend, D'Antoni also coached Benetton from 1994-97 when his team captured the Cup of Europe and Cup of Italy in 1995 and won the league title in 1996-97 after a 22-4 regular season. Prior to that he guided Philips Milan for four seasons from 1990-94 and led the club to the 1993 Korac Cup. During his Italian tenure D'Antoni led his teams to the playoffs each season and was twice voted the league's Coach of the Year.

D'Antoni – a dual citizen of the United States and Italy – was an All-NBA Rookie Second Team choice in 1974 after the Kansas City-Omaha Kings selected him with the 20th pick in the 1973 NBA Draft. He played two-plus seasons for the Kings, where he was a roommate of current Sacramento Kings Head Coach Rick Adelman,

D'Antoni Cont./Asst. Coaches

After just two games with the Spurs in November 1976, D'Antoni moved to Italy where he played 13 seasons for Milan and became the club's all-time leading scorer. In 1978, he tried out for the Chicago Bulls, but opted to remain in Italy, where he stayed until he was lured by the Nuggets to return to the NBA in 1997. He was voted the league's top point guard of all time in 1990 and he paced his team to five Italian League titles, two Cups of Europe, two Cups of Italy, one Korac Cup and one Intercontinental Cup. He was also selected to play on the Italian national team for the European Championships in 1989 and was a part of the Milan team that competed in the inaugural McDonald's Open in 1987.

Fluent in English and Italian, he has co-authored two books: Playmaker, with former Milan head coach Dan Peterson, and Vivendo Giacando, with Italian sportswriter Tullio Lauro.

Born on May 8, 1951, the Mullens, West Virginia native played collegiately at Marshall University and graduated as the school's career assist leader in 1973. His father, Lewis, was a legendary high school basketball coach in West Virginia and Ohio, and was inducted into West Virginia's Sports Hall of Fame in May 2004. His brother, Dan, is in his first season as a Suns assistant coach and is a former 30-year high school basketball coach in Myrtle, South Carolina. D'Antoni and his wife Laurel, whom he met in Milan, Italy, have one son, Michael.

MARC IAVARONI

A 15-year veteran of the NBA as a player or coach, Marc Iavaroni returned for his fourth season, including the last two and a half as the lead assistant.

Previously, he served as assistant coach/director of player development under Miami President/Head Coach Pat Riley from 1999-2002. Iavaroni's responsibilities consisted of all general duties of an assistant coach plus the direct responsibility of developing Heat players year round. Prior to that, he was an assistant coach under Cleveland Head Coach Mike Fratello for two seasons (1997-99), concentrating his efforts on big man development.

Iavaroni owes much of his teaching expertise to his 21-year association as a student and instructor under Hall of Fame coach Pete Newell.

A seven-year NBA veteran from 1982-1989, Iavaroni played for Philadelphia, San Antonio and Utah. He was a starter as a rookie on the 76ers' 1983 World Championship team, voted one of the 10 best NBA teams of all-time. In 1984-85, he played for San Antonio and then-head coach Cotton Fitzsimmons before completing his final three seasons with the Jazz, who won the Midwest Division in 1989.

Iavaroni concluded his professional career alongside current Suns Head Coach Mike D'Antoni in Milan before retiring in 1991. Iavaroni played professionally overseas for five seasons in Italy and Spain, including three seasons after his college career and two seasons following his NBA career.

His coaching career began as a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, University of Virginia, helping the Cavaliers to their first Final Four team in 1981. Following his professional playing career, Iavaroni was an assistant coach at Bowling Green State for two seasons from 1992-94.

As a collegian, Iavaroni was a four-year starter and finished in 1978 ranked in Virginia's top 10 in career scoring and rebounding. He gained first team All-Tournament honors on Virginia's 1976 ACC Tournament championship team, an accomplishment he still considers among his most satisfying playing achievements.

Born in Jamaica, N.Y., Iavaroni and his wife Caroline have three sons, Kenton, McCray and Jackson.

Assistant Coaches

ALVIN GENTRY

Alvin Gentry, a 26-year coaching veteran, 17 in the NBA, returned for his second season with Phoenix in 2005-06. A three-time NBA head coach at Miami, Detroit and L.A. Clippers, Gentry has also been an assistant coach for 12 seasons, nine years under the trio of Larry Brown, Kevin Loughery and Doug Collins, who have combined for over 1,700 NBA victories.

Prior to the Suns, Gentry served as an assistant coach with the New Orleans Hornets as the East's No. 5 seed finished 41-41. As a head coach, Gentry led the Clippers to a 89-133 mark (.401) from 2000-03. In 2001-02, in his second season as the Clippers' head coach, Gentry guided the Clippers to 39-43 record, the team's highest win total since 1992-93, and their mark of 31-51 in 2000-01 represented a 16-win improvement over the 1999-00 season.

Prior to the Clippers, he spent five seasons (1995-00) with the Detroit Pistons, including the first two and a half seasons as an assistant under Doug Collins. He took over for Collins on Feb. 2, 1998 and registered a 73-72 (.503) record from 1997-2000.

Gentry received his first head coaching opportunity with the Miami Heat, taking over as interim head coach for Kevin Loughery on Feb. 14, 1995, and finishing the season with a record of 15-21 (.417). He had served as an assistant with the Heat from 1991-95.

Gentry's first NBA coaching job came with the San Antonio Spurs, where he spent the 1988-89 and 1989-90 seasons as an assistant coach under Larry Brown. Gentry then moved to the Clippers for one season as an assistant under Mike Schuler.

Gentry began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Colorado during the 1977-78 season. After one year working in private business, he returned to the bench when he received his first full-time collegiate assistant coaching job at Baylor in 1980. Gentry then returned to Colorado as an assistant coach from 1981-85.

Gentry moved on to the University of Kansas as an assistant under then Head Coach Larry Brown from 1985-88, and helped lead the Jayhawks to the 1988 NCAA Championship before leaving with Brown for the Spurs prior to the start of the 1988-89 season.

He played point guard at Appalachian State for coaching legends: Press Maravich, the father of "Pistol Pete" and former Georgia Tech Head Coach Bobby Cremins. Gentry graduated from Appalachian State with a degree in management in 1977.

After graduation, his cousin, former NBA All-Star David "Skywalker" Thompson got him a tryout with the Denver Nuggets and although he didn't make the cut, he made an impression on Brown, who would eventually hire him as an assistant coach with the University of Kansas and the San Antonio Spurs.

Gentry and his wife Suzanne have two children, Ryan Marcus and Matthew Jackson. He also has one daughter, Alexis.

PHIL WEBER

Phil Weber completed his seventh season as an assistant coach with the Suns after joining the staff in September 1999, his first professional coaching position. He has on-the-floor and bench duties with a specialty in skill and player development.

Weber has survived four different coaching regimes in Phoenix and has the longest tenure with the club, among current coaches and players, along with forward Shawn Marion.

For four years prior to the Suns, he helped develop NBA players such as Marion, Baron Davis, Jalen Rose and Pat Garrity while in Los Angeles. Weber previously partnered with former NBA player and Denver General Manager Kiki Vandeweghe to form an academy for NBA player development in Los Angeles.

Weber's coaching career began at the University of Florida in 1984 under Head Coach Norm Sloan. Weber was with the Gators for five seasons, helping the team to its first Southeastern Conference title in 1989 and to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament in 1987.

From there, he spent one year traveling around the country to observe 16 different major college programs before spending one season as an assistant coach at Chaminade University in Hawaii. He was on the coaching staff at Iona College from 1991-95.

A native of Northport, N.Y., Weber helped Long Island Lutheran High School to a state title before playing collegiately at North Carolina State for Sloan and Jimmy Valvano. Weber redshirted during the Wolfpack's 1982-83 NCAA title season.

DAN D'ANTONI

Dan D'Antoni (dan-TONE-ee), the older brother of 2004-05 NBA Coach of the Year Mike D'Antoni and a 30-year South Carolina high school basketball coach, completed his first season as an assistant coach with the Phoenix Suns.

The elder D'Antoni accumulated over 500 wins as head coach of Socastee High School in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, a position he had held since 1975. His club regularly advanced in postseason play, including a trip to the 1998 state championship, when the Braves lost to South Aiken by one point on a layup with four-tenths of a second left.

Dan is the founder of the Beach Ball Classic, one of the most prestigious high school basketball tournaments in the country that has helped launch the careers of NBA All-Stars Kevin Garnett, Kobe Bryant, Jason Kidd, Vince Carter, Grant Hill, Rasheed Wallace and 2005 NBA draftee Raymond Felton (5th overall to Charlotte) since its debut in 1981.

The Mullens, West Virginia native was a point guard at Marshall University and as a senior in 1969-70, he served as the head coach of the Thundering Herd's freshman team that included brother Mike D'Antoni, and again in 1970-71 as an assistant coach for the varsity team. After a tryout stint with the NBA's Baltimore Bullets, D'Antoni began to work on other endeavors in 1971 before returning to coaching full-time in 1975.

Basketball is a way of life for the D'Antoni family. In addition to brother Mike, father Lewis was a legendary high school basketball coach in West Virginia and Ohio, and was inducted into West Virginia's Sports Hall of Fame in May 2004. Dan is also the father of three sons, who all played collegiate basketball: Matt, played at Brown University; Andrew, attended West Point Academy and is now serving in Iraq as a lieutenant in the United States Army; Nick, was the captain of the William and Mary basketball team.

Raja Bell #19

6TH SEASON • FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL • G • 6-5 • 210
PLAYOFF EXPERIENCE: 3 YEARS, 35 GAMES

2005-06 REGULAR SEASON: Reunited with former teammate Steve Nash (2002-03 with Dallas), Bell had a career year in 2005-06 and developed into one of the league's top three-point shooters... In his sixth NBA season and first with Phoenix, averaged 14.7 points, 3.2 rebounds, 2.6 assists in 37.5 minutes (30th in the NBA), all career highs, in 79 games played (all starts).... Ranked second in the NBA in three-point field goals made (197) and tied for fourth in three-point field goal percentage (.442), both career highs... Surpassed his previous career high in three-point field goals made in only the team's 34th game of the season at Denver on Jan. 10 (prev. 62 in 2003-04 with Utah)… Scored 10-plus points 64 times, 20-plus points 15 times, 30-plus points twice, including a career-high 31 points and a career-high three blocks vs. Seattle in a double-overtime loss vs. Seattle on Jan. 22, only 12 days after scoring 30 points for the first time in his career in a triple-overtime loss at Denver on Jan. 10… In that game against the Nuggets, connected on a career-high eight three-point field goals… Logged a career-high 58 minutes in a triple-overtime loss at Denver on Jan. 10… Notched first double-double as a Sun vs. Houston on Feb. 16 with 15 points and a career-high tying 10 rebounds, to go along with his season-high tying six assists… Entered the season with a career high of four three-point field goals made in a single game, but surpassed that total 13 times in 2005-06… Stole a career-high tying four steals vs. San Antonio on Jan. 7 and at Chicago on Dec. 31 (other, Dec. 28, 2002, Dallas vs. New York)… Awarded the 2005-06 Dan Majerle Hustle Award, which was selected based on the results of five voting categories: fans (who cast their ballots online at Suns.com), Suns players, coaches, employees and Majerle himself... Missed three games, including one game to a bruised right calf at Cleveland on Jan. 29, Coach's Decision at Golden State on April 14, and left thigh strain at L.A. Lakers on April 16.

CAREER PLAYOFFS: Is making his fourth career playoff appearance, first with Phoenix... Made first career playoff appearance as a rookie with Philadelphia in 2001 and earned a reputation as a defensive stopper defending the likes of All-Stars Kobe Bryant and Ray Allen... Advanced to the NBA Finals as a 76er vs. the Los Angeles Lakers in 2001... In start with Dallas, shared team-high scoring honors with teammate Michael Finley with playoff career-high 16 points on 7-of-11 shooting (.636) and added six boards in Game 4 of the Western Conference Semifinals at Sacramento on May 11, 2003.

CAREER NOTES: The undrafted six-year NBA veteran owns career averages of 8.8 points, and 2.5 rebounds in 23.4 minutes in 378 career games.. Has increased his scoring average in three consecutive seasons after averaging 3.2 points in his first three NBA seasons… Prior to signing with the Suns as an unrestricted free agent on August 3, 2005, averaged 7.3 points and 2.3 rebounds in 19.7 minutes in 299 career games (79 with Philadelphia, 75 with Dallas and 145 with Utah)… Has shot 40 percent or better from three-point range in three of the last four seasons... Registered 11.6 points in 145 games with Utah from 2003-05 after signing as a free agent on Oct. 1, 2003… Finished ninth in voting for NBA Sixth Man of the Year award in 2003-04 after averaging 11.2 points with the Jazz… Began the 2003-04 season with a career high of 16 points, but matched or topped that total 23 times, including a then career-best 26 against the L.A. Lakers on March 28, 2004… Signed by Dallas as a free agent on Oct. 1, 2002… In lone season with Dallas in 2002-03, he was a teammate of current Suns guard Steve Nash and shot a then personal best .412 from behind the arc… Agreed to a 10-day contract with Philadelphia on April 6, 2001 and saw limited action in five games as a rookie, averaging 1.0 points in 6.0 minutes… Originally signed as a free agent by San Antonio on August 2, 2000… Waived on Oct. 20, 2000… Prior to joining Philadelphia, signed with the Sioux Falls Skyforce of the IBL on March 31, 2001… Was a fourth-round draft pick (29th overall) by the Yakima Sun Kings in the 1999 CBA Draft and was named to the CBA All-Rookie Team in 1999-00.

PERSONAL: Full name is Raja Dia Bell… Born in St. Croix, but moved to Miami in the eighth grade and attended Miami Killian High School… Played for the West Team in the 1995 U.S. Olympic Festival… Member of the U.S. Virgin Islands National Team… His father, Roger, played football at Morehouse College and is their all-time leader in receptions… Sister, Tombi, was a star point guard for the University of Florida and was drafted by the WNBA's Minnesota Lynx… Married Cindi Greenman in August 2004… Was playing in a YMCA League in Miami with his father Roger before signing with the Sixers… Got the call to join the 76ers from Director of Player Personnel Tony DiLeo while dining at Denny's in Sioux Falls, S.D.

Boris Diaw #3

3RD SEASON • FRANCE • G/F/C • 6-8 • 230
FIRST PLAYOFF EXPERIENCE

2005-06 REGULAR SEASON: One of the top candidates for NBA's Most Improved Player after posting career highs in every major statistical category… In his third NBA season and first with Phoenix, averaged 13.3 points, 6.9 rebounds (T-31st) and 6.2 assists (17th) in 35.5 minutes in 81 games, all career highs... Averaged 4.6 points, 3.6 rebounds and 2.3 assists in first two seasons with Atlanta... Projected to be the team's backup point guard heading into training camp and listed as a a guard in the team's 2005-06 media guide, Diaw instead emerged as a starter at power forward and center... Was one of only three NBA players (LeBron James, Jason Kidd) to average at least six rebounds and six assists… Joined fellow Frenchman Tony Parker as the only two NBA players to rank in the top 10 in field goal percentage (.526, T-8th) and top 20 in assists.. Lived up to his nickname "3-D" by recording first four career triple-doubles, trailing only Kidd (8) and James (6)... Logged back-to-back triple-doubles at Golden State on April 14 and at L.A. Lakers on April 16, his 24th birthday, to become only the fourth player in franchise history to achieve that feat (Alvan Adams, Charles Barkley, Jason Kidd-twice)... Scored 10-plus points 61 times (14 times total in first two NBA seasons with Atlanta), 20-plus points 11 times (once prior to 2005-06), including career-high 31 points at Minnesota on Dec. 26… Notched 18 double-doubles after recording one in first two NBA seasons with Atlanta… Notched first career triple-double with 14 points, 11 rebounds and 13 assists at Philadelphia on Jan. 31, the first Suns regular season triple-double since Steve Nash had one vs. the 76ers on March 30, 2005… Grabbed 10-plus rebounds 18 times, including career-high 13 rebounds at New Orleans/Okla. City on Dec. 16… Dished out five or more assists 62 times, 10-plus assists nine times, including a career-high 16 dishes at Golden State on April 14… Logged career-high 44 minutes vs. New York on Dec. 9… Swatted a career-high four blocks twice (Jan. 29 at Cleveland and Dec. 4 vs. Atlanta)… Acquired from Atlanta along with two lottery-protected first-round picks for Joe Johnson on August 19, 2005... As part of the deal, Phoenix will receive the Lakers' 2006 first-round draft choice (via Atlanta, 20th overall).

CAREER PLAYOFFS: Is making his first playoff appearance in his third NBA season.

CAREER NOTES: Chosen with the 21st overall pick in the 2003 NBA Draft by the Atlanta Hawks, Diaw was an early-entry candidate who placed his name in the 2001 and 2002 drafts, but withdrew his name each time… Played in 142 games (62 starts) in first two seasons with the Hawks, tallying 4.6 points, 3.6 rebounds and 2.3 assists, and missed only six contests due to injury… As a rookie in 2003-04, Diaw filled up the stat columns, finishing with averages of 4.5 points, 4.5 rebounds, 2.4 assists, 0.8 steals and 0.5 blocks in 25.3 minutes in 76 games (37 starts)… Among NBA rookies, finished tied for seventh in rebounds, tied for eighth in assists, ninth in blocks and eighth in minutes… A three-year member of Pau Orthez, France's top league team, Diaw averaged 6.3 points, 4.2 rebounds and 2.3 assists in 93 games from 2000-03… With an increase in playing time in 2002-03, he totaled 7.3 points, 5.3 rebounds and 3.8 assists in 23 contests and connected on 59.6 percent of his shots… Two days after his draft selection by the Hawks, he helped his team to their second French League championship, along with teammate Mickael Pietrus, a first round choice (11th overall) of the Golden State Warriors in the 2003 draft… Is a member of the France Senior National Team and competed in the European Championships in 2003 and 2005… His international experience has shown a steady progression since the age of 16 as he participated in France's lower divisions (winning a gold medal at the 2000 European Championships) until a promotion to Pau Orthez prior to the start of the 2000-01 campaign… In his first season, he was named 2001 Pro A Newcomer of the Year for Pau Orthez as they took home the league championship… With a 7.7 scoring average in year two he was selected to play the league's All-Star Game and won the slam dunk contest… Played two seasons for Centre Federal, previously known as INSEP, the French National Institute for Sports and Physical Education from 1998-2000… His 16.8 point average in his final year (1999-2000) for Centre Federal was the best scoring output in his French career.

PERSONAL: Full name is Boris Diaw-Riffiod… His parents are Issa Diaw and Elizabeth Riffiod… According to the Suproleague Yearbook, a basketball publication in France, his mother is considered to be the best center in French women's basketball history, while his father is a Senegalese former high jump champion… He has two brothers, Martin and younger brother Papa "Paco" who is a freshman guard at Georgia Tech… Admires Earvin "Magic" Johnson's game… Is a soccer fan… Enjoys eating pasta and watching the Simpsons… Diaw hopes to become a high school coach when his playing days are over… Enjoys playing Halo on his Xbox video game system… His favorite actor is Mel Gibson, and favorite movie is "Braveheart"… A close friend of Spurs guard and French national teammate Tony Parker… Wears the same shoe size (16) as former Sun Joe Johnson, the player he was traded for.

JAMES JONES #22

3RD SEASON • MIAMI (FLA.) • G/F • 6-8 • 220
PLAYOFF EXPERIENCE: 1 YEAR, 13 GAMES

2005-06 REGULAR SEASON: Has increased his scoring average in each of his three NBA seasons, including a career-high 9.3 points (prev. 4.7 in 2004-05) in his first season with Phoenix in 2005-06… Also posted personal bests in rebounding (3.4), blocks (0.65), three-point field goals made (110) and minutes played (23.6)... Scored in double figures 34 times, 20-plus points six times... Tallied a season-high 22 points off the bench twice (at Denver on Jan. 10 and vs. Portland on Dec. 6)… Notched his only two double-doubles of the season (third and fourth of his career) in the season's final two games... Recorded first as a Sun vs. New Orleans/Oklahoma City on April 17 with 20 points, season-high 10 rebounds and a career-high five assists... Followed with 11 points and a season-high tying 10 rebounds in the regular season finale at Portland on April 19... Was fouled on three 3-point field goal attempts at Denver on Jan. 10 and finished with nine free throws made on 11 free throws attempts, both career highs, and added a season-high 22 points… Scored 17 of his 20 points at Miami on Jan. 26, in the second quarter… Made at least one three-point field goal 47 times, multiple treys 29 times… Connected on career-high tying six three-point field goals vs. Portland on Dec. 6 (other, Indiana at Seattle, Nov. 28, 2004)… Posted back-to-back 20-point games for the first time in his NBA career vs. Atlanta on Dec. 4 and vs. Portland on Dec. 6… Missed a total of seven games due to injury (four games due to a sprained right ankle from Dec. 12-17, two games due to right wrist sprain from Feb. 16-22 and one game due to right second metatarsal phalangeal joint on March 6)... Acquired from Indiana on Aug. 25, 2005 in exchange for a 2008 second-round pick.

CAREER PLAYOFFS: Is making his second playoff appearance, first with Phoenix... Scored in double figures twice in 13 postseason games with the Pacers, including playoff-highs of 11 points and nine rebounds vs. Boston on April 30, 2005.

CAREER NOTES: Originally selected by Indiana in the second round (49th overall) in 2003 NBA Draft... Surpassed his rookie averages in almost every major statistical category in his second NBA season with Indiana… Averaged 4.9 points, 2.3 rebounds, 0.8 assists and .398 shooting in 17.7 minutes over 75 games (24 starts) in sophomore season in 2004-05… Led the Pacers and ranked 25th in the NBA with a .398 three-point field goal percentage in 2004-05… Was one of only two Pacers' players (along with Stephen Jackson) to make a career-high six three-point field goals, as he shot 6 of 9 at Seattle on Nov. 28… In that game against the Sonics, he tallied a career-high 27 points… Registered his first career start on Nov. 20 vs. Orlando, only one day after the incident at Detroit… In that game, responded with his first career double-double with 12 points and a career-high 12 rebounds against the Magic… He topped that game against Boston on Nov. 23 with his second double-double of the season with 22 points and 10 rebounds… Scored in double figures 13 times, including seven times during a 12-game stretch in late November and early December… It featured his first two 20-plus point games when the Pacers were shorthanded without Ron Artest, Jermaine O'Neal and Jackson … Started the first seven games after the Detroit incident and made 21 starts in 29 games after Nov. 19… In his 24 total starts, he averaged 7.1 points and 3.7 rebounds… In sparse action as an NBA rookie, averaged 1.2 points on 2-9 shooting (.222) in 4.3 minutes in six games as a reserve in 2003-04… After spending the first 28 games of his rookie season on the injured list with a strained left hamstring, he was activated on Dec. 23, 2003 and made his regular season debut at Milwaukee on Dec. 26.

PERSONAL: Full name is James Andrew Jones… Nicknamed Junior… He and his wife Destiny have a daughter, Jadynn… Parents are Earl and Jennifer J. Harris… His aunt Lisa Jones played basketball at the University of Miami from 1988-90… Majored in finance and was a member of the National Honor Society at the University of Miami with a 3.41 GPA… Enjoys fishing, bowling and water skiing…. Uncle is former MLB infielder Ricky Gutierrez, who played 12 seasons from 1993-2004 with San Diego, Houston, Chicago Cubs, Cleveland, New York Mets and Boston… Was a four-year letter winner at American Senior High School in Miami and was the Class 6A Player of the Year in Florida in 1999.

7TH SEASON • UNLV • F • 6-7 • 228
PLAYOFF EXPERIENCE: 4 YEARS, 34 GAMES

2005-06 REGULAR SEASON: Enjoyed a career year in his seventh NBA season, averaging 21.8 points (prev. 21.2 in 2002-03), 11.8 rebounds (11.3, prev. 11.3 in 2004-05), 1.69 blocks (prev. 1.47 in 2004-05), 60 double-double (third highest total in franchise history) on 52.5 percent shooting (prev. 48.0 in 2000-01), all career highs in 2005-06… Led the team in scoring (tied for 15th), rebounding (3rd), steals (1.98, 5th), blocks (17th) and minutes played (32.4, tied for 7th)... One of only four NBA players (Kevin Garnett, Elton Brand, Yao Ming) to average at least 20 points and 10 rebounds… Only NBA player ranked in the top 20 in points (T-15th), rebounds (3rd), steals (5th), blocks (17th), field goal percentage (T-10th) and minutes played T-7th)… Finished in the top five in rebounds and steals for the second consecutive season, only one other NBA player has done it even once since the league started to track steals in 1973-74 (David Robinson, 1991-92)… Recorded the Suns' highest rebounding (11.8) since Charles Barkley averaged 12.2 in 1992-93… Named NBA Western Conference Player of the Month for February after guiding the Suns to a 9-1 record and averaged 24.2 points and 13.9 rebounds… It was the first time in his career he's won the monthly honor… Scored in double figures 81 times, 20-plus points 54 times, 30-plus points career-high 10 times, including a career-high 44 points to go along with his 15 rebounds vs. Boston on Feb. 22 to record the NBA's first 40-point/15-rebound game since teammate Amaré Stoudemire had 44 points and 16 rebounds at Golden State on April 8, 2005… The 44 points were the most scored by a Suns player other than Amaré Stoudemire in a regular season game since Tony Delk erupted for a career-high 53 points in a triple-overtime loss at Sacramento on Jan. 2, 2001… Became only the second Suns player (Charles Barkley Feb 4-8, 1996) in franchise history to score at least 30 points and grab 15 rebounds in three consecutive games (Feb. 22-27) and fell one point short of doing it a fourth game in a row when he had 29 points and 18 rebounds vs. Milwaukee on March 1... Was the first NBA player since former Lakers center Shaquille O'Neal (Dec. 5 to Dec. 11, 2001) to record at least 30 points and 15 rebounds in three consecutive games… Became the first Suns player to score 30 points and grab 20 rebounds since Charles Barkley (March 26, 1995 vs. Houston) with 31 points and a career-high and 2005-06 NBA season-high 24 rebounds vs. Charlotte on Feb. 25… Grabbed 10 or more rebounds 60 times... Scored 20-plus points and grabbed 10-plus rebounds 40 times... Became just the second player in franchise history to grab 5,000 rebounds vs. Sacramento on Feb. 10… Fell two steals shy of becoming the second player in franchise history (Kevin Johnson,) to record a triple-double with 10 or more assists, finishing with 14 points, 12 rebounds and a career-high and NBA season-high tying eight steals vs. Minnesota on Feb. 6… Named Western Conference Player of the Week for the sixth time in his career after leading Suns to 4-0 week from Dec. 26-Jan. 1, 2006… Swatted a career-high tying six blocks at Memphis on Dec. 17 (four times, last April 12, 2005 vs. New Orleans)… Recorded 39 points, 14 rebounds in franchise regular season record 60 minutes (prev. 57, George Wilson at Seattle, Nov. 15, 1968 and Gail Goodrich vs. Cincinnati, Dec. 14, 1969) in a triple-overtime loss at New York on Jan. 2… Sank his 500th career 3-pointer at San Antonio on March 17, becoming only the second player in franchise history to achieve that feat (Dan Majerle, 800)… Along with teammate Amaré Stoudemire, was one of 23 players named to the USA Basketball Men's Senior National Team Program on March 5, 2006... Made his third All-Star appearance in the last four seasons (2003, 2005, 2006) and scored 14 points and grabbed eight rebounds in only 17 minutes at the 2006 All-Star Game in Houston on Feb. 19.

CAREER PLAYOFFS: Is making his fourth playoff appearance, all with Phoenix... Was clutch posting playoff career highs of 38 points and 16 rebounds in a series' clinching overtime victory at Dallas in Game 6 of the 2005 Western Conference Semifinals on May 22... Averaged 23.3 points, 12.2 rebounds and 1.83 blocks in the 2005 Western Conference Finals vs. Dallas... Averaged 18.5 points, 11.7 rebounds, 1.83 steals, 1.83 blocks in 47.0 minutes in six first round playoff games against eventual champion San Antonio Spurs in 2003... Had playoff career highs with 24 points, 15 rebounds in Game 6... Led Suns in rebounding in each of his first three playoff appearances, with 8.8 rebounds in nine games in 2000, 8.3 in first-round series against Sacramento in 2001 and 11.7 boards in 2003 vs. San Antonio... Posted his first career playoff double-double in Game 3 of 2000 Western Conference first-round series against San Antonio with 16 points and 14 rebounds.

CAREER NOTES: Three-time All-Star (2003, 2005, 2006)... Third Team All-NBA selection in 2005… Has averaged at least 19 points and nine rebounds in each of the last five seasons... Has the longest tenure with the Suns of any player on the team (seven seasons)... Is only 12 points shy of becoming the fifth player in franchise history to score 10,000 points in their Suns career (5th, 9,988)... Ranks in the top five among Suns all-time leaders in nine major statistical categories, including rebounds (2nd, 5,367), field goals made (5th, 4,014), field goals attempted (5th, 8,487), three-point field goals made (2nd, 514), three-point field goals attempted (2nd, 1,486), steals (4th, 994), blocks (4th, 702) and minutes played (5th, 20,225)…One of only five NBA players to notch at least 30 double-doubles in each of the last six seasons (Kevin Garnett, Tim Duncan, Dirk Nowitzki, Elton Brand) and has 283 career double-doubles in seven seasons... Remarkably durable, having missed only 10 contests due to injury in last six seasons... Selected by Phoenix with the ninth overall pick in the 1999 NBA Draft (pick obtained from Dallas in Pat Garrity/Steve Nash trade in 1998)... Led Team USA in scoring in the bronze medal game with 22 points in a 104-96 victory over Lithuania at the 2004 Olympics in Athens, Greece… Played on Team USA at the 2002 World Championships in Indianapolis and won a gold medal with Team USA at the 2001 Goodwill Games in Brisbane, Australia when he paced the squad with 13.4 points and 7.6 rebounds... Was one of only two NBA players (2004 MVP Garnett) to rank in top 30 in points (19.0, 19th), rebounds (9.3, 14th), steals (2.1, 2nd), blocks (1.3, 27th) and minutes (40.6, 2nd) in 2003-04 and led the league with 167 steals… In 2002-03, was only player ranked in the top 20 in points (17th, 21.2) and top 10 in both rebounds (8th, 9.5) and steals (3rd, 2.28)... Made first All-Star appearance in 2003 in Atlanta and had eight points, seven rebounds, four assists, three steals in 23 minutes and got the defensive assignment on Michael Jordan at end of regulation and late in both overtime sessions... Was one of only two NBA players in 2001-02 to be ranked in top 40 of seven of the league's nine major statistical areas (Kevin Garnett)... Placed 27th in scoring (19.1), tied for eighth in rebounding (9.9), 34th in FG percentage (.469), tied for 24th in FT percentage (.845), 12th in steals (1.84), tied for 34th in blocks (1.06) and tied for 18th in minutes (38.4)... Won Western Conference Player of the Week on April 1, 2002 (second of career) with 28.3 points, 14.0 rebounds, 1.5 steals, .551 FG and 18-18 FT in a 3-1 week... Finished the 2000-01 season eighth in the NBA with then career-high 10.7 rebounds... Became just the sixth Suns player (11th time overall) and first Sun to average 10.0 rebounds in a season since Charles Barkley (1995-96)... Twice scored career-high 38 points in 2000-01 season: vs. Dallas on April 11 and vs. Minnesota on Feb. 14... Topped off first season with NBA All-Rookie Second Team honors, the Suns first All-Rookie selection since Michael Finley in 1995-96... Underwent surgery as a rookie on Dec. 23, 1999 to remove loose cartilage from underneath left kneecap and missed 31 contests... Posted career-high six blocks on Feb. 27, 2000 at Toronto, most by a Suns rookie since Oliver Miller had seven on April 16, 1993.

THE 20 AND 10 CLUB

Suns forward Shawn Marion is one of only four NBA players (Kevin Garnett, Elton Brand, Yao Ming) to average at least 20 points (career-high 21.8) and 10 rebounds (career-high 11.8)… It's the first time The Matrix has had 20 points and 10 rebounds in a season after coming close twice… Marion averaged 21.2 points and 9.5 rebounds in 2002-03 and 19.4 points and 11.3 rebounds in 2004-05… The last Suns player to average at least 20 points and 10 rebounds was Charles Barkley, who did it in each of his four seasons in the Valley of the Sun (1992-96).

MATRIX RELOADED

Suns forward Shawn Marion had career year in his seventh NBA season, averaging 21.8 points, 11.8 rebounds, 1.69 blocks on 52.5 percent shooting, all career highs in 2005-06, and was awarded by receiving his third All-Star bid in the last four seasons (2003, 2005, 2006) on Feb. 9… Marion is only the 11th player in franchise history to make at least three All-Star appearances in a Suns uniform (Dick Van Arsdale, Connie Hawkins, Charlie Scott, Paul Westphal, Walter Davis, Tom Chambers, Kevin Johnson, Dan Majerle, Charles Barkley, Jason Kidd).

STEVE NASH #13

10TH SEASON • SANTA CLARA • G • 6-3 • 195
PLAYOFF EXPERIENCE: 7 YEARS, 66 GAMES

2005-06 REGULAR SEASON: Improved upon his 2004-05 NBA MVP season by posting career highs in scoring (18.8, 29th in the NBA), rebounds (4.2), field goal percentage (.512,, T-16th), free throw-percentage (NBA-best and franchise-record .921) and minutes played (35.4) in 79 games in his 10th NBA season... Became only the fourth player (Reggie Miller in 1993-94, Mark Price in 1988-89 and Larry Bird in 1986-87 and 1987-88) in NBA history to shoot at least 50 percent or better from the field, 40 percent or better from behind the arc (.439, 6th) and 90 percent from the charity stripe, and meet all the statistical minimums (300 field goals made, 55 three-point field goals made, 125 free throws made)…Led the NBA in assists (10.5) for the second year in a row and is the first NBA player since Kidd (1998-99, 1999-00) to average double figures in assists in consecutive seasons... A Nash-led team has led the league in scoring in five consecutive seasons (2004-06 with Phoenix, 2001-04 with Dallas)… Scored in double figures 72 times, 20-plus points 39 times, 30-plus points five times, including a season-high 31 points three times… Matched a season high in scoring with 31 points and dished out a game-high 11 assists vs. Minnesota on March 11, marking only the second time in the regular season Nash has tallied at least 30 point and 10 assists in a Suns uniform (other, 33 points and 17 assists at Sacramento, Feb. 8, 2005)… Recorded for season-high 31 points, including career-high seven 3-pointers vs. Indiana on Nov. 30… Equaled season high in scoring with 31 points, including a Suns season-high tying 21 points in the first half, vs. Minnesota on Feb. 6… Notched 43 double-doubles, including his third career triple-double (plus one in the playoffs) with 16 points, 10 rebounds and 12 assists in the regular season finale at Portland on April 19… Distributed 10 or more assists 45 times, 15 or more assists 10 times, 20 or more assists once, including career-high and 2005-06 NBA season-high 22 assists in a triple-overtime loss at New York on Jan. 2… Nash's 22 assists were the most in the NBA since former Cavalier guard Andre Miller had 22 vs. Philadelphia on Dec. 15, 2001 and was the second highest total in franchise history, trailing only Kevin Johnson's 25 set in the 1993-94 season… Distributed a franchise-record 12 assists in the first quarter vs. Miami on Jan. 6, tied for the second-most assists in a single quarter in NBA history, and two shy of John Lucas' NBA record 14 (San Antonio vs. Denver, April 15, 1984)… Finished with 19 assists vs. the Heat, tied for second highest in career… Named NBA Western Conference Player of the Week twice for Jan. 2-8, 2006 and November 21-27, 2005 (for the fourth and fifth times in career)… Averaged 20.6 points, 12.8 assists, 4.8 rebounds, 50.6 percent shooting, 50.0 percent from behind the arc in 38.6 minutes in 16 games in the month of January (10-6 record)… He finished the month with 204 assists… Nash is the first NBA player with 200 assists in a calendar month since Denver's Mark Jackson had 205 in January 1997… Missed three games total (right ankle sprain vs. San Antonio on March 9, DNP (Coach's Decision) at Golden State on April 14, right thigh contusion at L.A. Lakers on April 16)... Suns fell to 2-8 (0-3 in 2005-06) when playing without Nash since the start of the 2004-05 season (14.0 average margin of defeat)... Made his fourth All-Star appearance (2002, 2003, 2005, 2006), including his first as a starter, and had two points and six assists in a team-high 28 minutes… Was the ninth player in franchise history to start in an All-Star Game and the first since Jason Kidd in 2001.

CAREER PLAYOFFS: Is making his seventh playoff appearance, fourth with Phoenix... Has career averages of 16.2 points and 7.6 assists in 66 career playoff games... Reached the Western Conference Finals twice (2003 with Dallas and 2005 with Phoenix)... Followed sensational 2004-05 MVP performance in regular season, with even gaudier numbers in the postseason, averaging 23.9 points, 11.3 assists, 4.8 rebounds on .520 shooting in 15 playoff games… Became the first player in NBA history to record four consecutive games with at least 25 points and 10 assists in the postseason (May 18-24)… Joined Wilt Chamberlain and Michael Jordan as the only players to score 40-plus points in one playoff game and then collect a triple double in the next game… Scored career-high 48 points (regular season and playoff) in Game 4 of conference semifinals at Dallas on May 15, the second-highest point total in Suns playoff history and followed that effort up with the fifth career triple-double in Phoenix postseason history (and his first in the playoffs) with 34 points, career playoff-high 13 rebounds and 12 assists in Game 5 vs. Dallas on May 18… Scored at least 20 points in eight consecutive playoff games (May 11 – 28), the most by a Suns player in the postseason since Charles Barkley did it 12 times in a row from June 5, 1993 – May 11, 1994... Reached the Western Conference Finals in 2003 with the Mavericks and averaged 16.1 points and 7.3 assists in 20 playoff games... Played in eight postseason games with Phoenix in first two NBA seasons.

CAREER NOTES: Since re-signing with the Suns on July 14, 2004, Nash is averaging 17.2 points and 11.0 assists on 50.7 percent shooting over the last two seasons in 154 games after averaging 12.5 points and 6.0 assists on 46.5 percent shooting in first eight NBA seasons (first two with Phoenix, six with Dallas) in 549 games... SHOOTING STAR

Suns guard Steve Nash is only the fourth player in NBA history to shoot at least 50 percent or better from the field (career-high .512), 40 percent or better from behind the arc (.439) and 90 percent from the charity stripe (career-high and 2005-06 NBA-best .921), and meet all the statistical minimums (300 field goals made, 55 three-point field goals made, 125 free throws made)… The only players to do that are Reggie Miller (1993-94 with Indiana), Mark Price (1988-89 with Cleveland) and Larry Bird (1986-87 and 1987-88 with Boston)…. Former Suns player Steve Kerr also did it with Chicago in 1995-96, but did not meet all the statistical minimums to qualify… The NBA did not implement the three-point shot until the 1979-80 season.

ONLY NBA PLAYERS TO SHOOT AT LEAST 50 FROM THE FIELD, 40 % FROM THREE-POINT RANGE, 90% FROM FREE THROW STRIPE*

AMARÉ STOUDEMIRE #32

4TH SEASON • CYPRESS CREEK H.S. (FLA) • F/C • 6-10 • 245
PLAYOFF EXPERIENCE: 2 YEARS, 21 GAMES

2005-06 REGULAR SEASON: Underwent successful left knee microfracture surgery on Oct. 11 and was inactive for the club's first 66 games... Averaged 8.7 points, 5.3 rebounds and 1.00 blocks in 16.8 minutes in three games, but did not play after March 27 and will not return this season... Underwent arthroscopic surgery on his right knee on April 5 to remove debris caused by wear and tear of the knee cap… Returned to the active roster on March 22 and made season debut on March 23 vs. Portland and responded with a team-high tying 20 points, team-high tying nine rebounds and two blocks in only 19 minutes.... Held scoreless for only the second time in his NBA career (other, Nov. 22, 2002, 10th NBA game) in final game played at New Jersey on March 27... Along with teammate Shawn Marion, was one of 23 players named to the USA Basketball Men's Senior National Team Program on March 5.

2004-05 REGULAR SEASON: Earned Second Team All-NBA honors in only his third NBA season and was a first-time All-Star selection in 2005… Averaged 26.0 points (5th), 8.9 rebounds (17th), 1.63 blocks (20th), .559 field goal percentage (2nd) in 36.1 minutes (T38th) in 80 games... Was only NBA player ranked in top 10 in points and field goal percentage… Had highest scoring average by a Suns player since Tom Chambers averaged a franchise-best 27.2 points in 1989-90… Fourteen of his top 15 career scoring efforts came in 2004-05… Scored 20-plus points 62 times, 30-plus points 29 times, 40-plus points six times, 50 or more points once… Led team in scoring 48 times… Had 27 double-doubles… Became the then sixth-youngest player in NBA history (22 years, 47 days) and only the fourth player in Suns history to score 50 or more points in the regular season with 50 points (20-27 FG, 10-17 FT) vs. Portland on Jan. 2… The 20 field goals made were an NBA season high… Broke Connie Hawkins' single season franchise record for free throws made (583) and free throws attempted (795)... Had highest scoring average by a third-year player since Vince Carter averaged 27.6 points in 2000-01… Won NBA Western Conference Player of the Month for April and NBA Western Conference Player of the Week for Nov. 15-21 and Dec. 6-12... Blocked at least one shot in 65 of 80 games played, including season-high five blocks vs. Toronto on Dec. 26 and at New York on Jan. 25… Hauled in a season-high 19 rebounds at Memphis on Feb. 1, his most boards since grabbing a career-high 21 as a rookie vs. Memphis on Jan. 10, 2003… Became the first Suns' frontcourt player since Charles Barkley in 1995-96 to record four consecutive 30-point games from Nov. 16-21… Recorded second-highest point total of career with 44 points vs. San Antonio on March 9, finishing the season series vs. the Spurs averaging 38.7 points in three contests…. Suns exercised fourth-year option on his contract to extend his contract through the 2005-06 season on Oct. 27… Averaged 29.9 points in 15 playoff games, the highest scoring average ever for a Suns player in a single postseason… Broke Kareem Abdul-Jabbar's record for highest scoring average (34.2, 1970) ever for a player in his first conference finals by averaging 37.0 points in conference finals vs. San Antonio… Joined Charles Barkley (1993) as the only Suns player to score 40 or more points three times in a single postseason and scored a playoff career-high 42 points in Game 5 of conference finals vs. San Antonio on June 1.

CAREER NOTES: Earned a bronze medal as a member of Team USA along with Suns forward Shawn Marion at the 2004 Olympics in Athens... In sophomore season averaged team-leading 20.6 points, 9.0 rebounds, 1.6 blocks, 1.2 steals, .475 FG (T-25th in NBA) in 36.8 minutes in 2003-04, all above rookie averages… Would have ranked 15th in scoring, tied for 15th in rebounding and 19th in blocks, but did not play in the minimum number of games required to qualify for inclusion due to left ankle, big toe injury... Led the Suns in scoring in 11 consecutive games (Feb. 7-March 6, 2004), tied for the second-longest streak in franchise history (12-Charlie Scott, 1974-75 and 11-Charles Barkley, 1994-95)… Set got milk? Rookie Challenge record with 36 points on Feb. 13 at 2004 All-Star Weekend in Los Angeles (prev. 31 by Kobe Bryant, 1997 and Jason Richardson, 2003)… Tied franchise record with 10 blocks vs. Utah on Feb. 7, 2004… Became the Suns' youngest starter on opening night (20 years old, 11 months) at San Antonio on Oct. 28, 2003… Captured the 2002-03 'got milk' NBA Rookie of the Year award after ranking first among NBA first-year players in rebounding (8.8), free throws made (320) and attempted (484) and second in scoring (13.5), blocks (1.06) and minutes (31.3) in 2002-03… Became the then youngest winner (20) and the third Suns player to win the honor, along with Walter Davis in 1977-78 and Alvan Adams in 1975-76… Was the first ROY to come directly out of high school... Was the second-youngest player drafted by the Suns in club history (19 years, 7 months, 10 days), behind only Stephen Jackson (19 years, 2 months, 20 days) in 1997... Was the Suns' ninth early entry pick in club history and the fifth-straight underclassman selected by the team (Casey Jacobsen was drafted as an early entry candidate to make it 10 total early entry picks and six in a row)… Was only the third ROY since 1964-65 to be chosen after the seventh pick (New York's 18th selection Mark Jackson, 1987-88 and Golden State's 11th selection Jamaal Wilkes, 1974-75)… Was only the fourth ROY (Mike Miller, Tim Duncan, Chris Webber) in previous 13 seasons to win the award and reach the postseason… Stoudemire and Houston's Yao Ming were the only unanimous selections to the NBA All-Rookie First Team… Participated in the Rookie Challenge (18 points, seven rebounds) and Slam Dunk contest on All-Star Saturday in Atlanta... Named NBA Western Conference Rookie of the Month for April 2003 and January 2003, the Suns first monthly winner since April 1988 (Kevin Johnson)... Exploded for then career-high 38 points at Minnesota on Dec. 30, 2002… The point total was two short of the Suns rookie record (W.Davis, 40, Jan. 5, 1978) and he added 14 rebounds... Grabbed Suns rookie record 21 rebounds (eight offensive, 16 in second half) vs. Memphis on Jan. 10, 2003, the first 20-rebound game by a Sun since Jan. 9, 1996 when A.C. Green had 20 vs. L.A. Clippers and the most rebounds by a Sun since March 24, 1995 when Charles Barkley had 26 vs. Houston… In NBA debut at Seattle on Oct. 28, 2002 had 10 points, six rebounds in 20 minutes.

PERSONAL: Full name is Amaré Carsares Stoudemire... Name is pronounced AH-mahr-AY… His father passed away when he was 12 years old... The son of Carrie Stoudemire, he has two brothers, Hazell, Jr. and Marwan and one sister D.D... Wears size 16 shoe... In April 2005, he became the first Suns player on a Sports Illustrated cover since 1994 (Barkley) when he appeared on the NBA Playoffs preview with Miami Heat center Shaquille O'Neal... Just hours before the final session of his second annual youth basketball camp at Desert Ridge High School in Mesa, he joined Suns Managing Partner Robert Sarver some 3,000 miles away to ring The Opening Bell at the New York Stock Exchange on June 30, 2005… Made a cameo appearance on the season finale of the NBA hit reality series The Apprentice, which aired on December 2004, and met millionaire host Donald Trump during a charity basketball game… Nicknamed STAT (Standing Tall and Talented) and has that name tattooed on his right arm... Did not start playing basketball until he was 14 years old... Also played football and baseball in high school… Had LASIK surgery at the Schwartz Laser Eye Center in Scottsdale to correct a vision problem in May 2003… Was the winner in Wheel of Fortune's NBA Week in 2003 and donated money to the Boys and Girls Club… Featured on the cover of Sony Playstation 2's video game NBA '06… A fan of G.I. Joe as a kid, Stoudemire was recently immortalized with his own action figure, by McFarlane's Sports Pick.

KURT THOMAS #40

11TH SEASON • TEXAS CHRISTIAN • C • 6-9 • 235
PLAYOFF EXPERIENCE: 5 YEARS, 48 GAMES

2005-06 REGULAR SEASON: In 11th NBA season and first with Phoenix, averaged 8.6 points and 7.5 rebounds in 53 games (50 starts), his fifth consecutive season averaging at least eight points and seven rebounds… After playing in the club's first 53 games, missed the final 29 games (inactive 26 games) due to a stress fracture in his right foot and is not expected to return until the Western Conference Semifinals, at the earliest... His scoring average dipped below double figures for the first time since 1999-2000... Scored in double figures 24 times, including season-high 18 points vs. Washington on Dec. 23… Ranked fourth on the club with eight double-doubles… Notched first double-double as a Sun with 16 points and 16 rebounds vs. Denver on Dec. 2… Had 11 points, 12 rebounds and a season-high five blocks in a double-overtime loss vs. Seattle on Jan. 22... Grabbed 10-plus rebounds 13 times, including a season-high 19 rebounds vs. New Jersey on Nov. 25, becoming the first Suns player other than Shawn Marion to lead the team in rebounding in the team's first 12 games... Acquired from New York on June 28, 2005 along with the draft rights to Dijon Thompson (54th overall) for Quentin Richardson and the draft rights to Nate Robinson (21st overall).

CAREER PLAYOFFS: Is making his sixth playoff appearance, first with Phoenix... Was a member of the New York Knicks' 1999 Eastern Conference Championship team... Averaged 13.7 points and 11.3 rebounds on .479 shooting over his last two postseasons in nine games (2001, 2004)... Has averaged 6.5 points and 5.8 rebounds in 48 career playoff games with Miami and New York.

CAREER NOTES: Originally selected by the Miami Heat with the 10th pick in the 1995 NBA Draft, owns career averages of 10.6 points, 7.6 rebounds and 1.3 assists in 680 games (513 starts) in 11 seasons with four teams (Miami, Dallas, New York, Phoenix)… Has improved with experience, averaging 11.8 points and 8.4 rebounds in 453 games over the last six seasons after averaging 8.2 points and 6.0 rebounds in 227 games in his first five seasons… Has averaged in double figures in points in five of the last six seasons, including a career-high 14.0 points in 2002-03… In final NBA season with New York, averaged a double-double for the first time in his career, recording 11.5 points and a career-high 10.4 rebounds (tied for sixth in the NBA) in 80 games in 2004-05... A durable performer, Thomas missed just seven games due to injury-illness in seven seasons with New York (three in 2000-01, one in 2002-03, one in 2003-04, two in 2004-05) after being plagued by injuries early in his career with Miami and Dallas… Finished the 2004-05 season in 21st place on the all-time Knicks career scoring list with 5,930 points, ninth with 4,183 rebounds and fourth with 463 blocked shots… Owns three career 30+ scoring games and one 20-20 game (29 points, 20 rebounds vs. Milwaukee, March 5, 2002)… Shot just .695 from the free-throw line in first five pro seasons, but has shot .802 (772-962) in last six… Has ranked in NBA Top 25 in rebounding in four of the last five seasons (2001-05)… Poured in a career-high 33 points twice, at Indiana on Nov. 8, 2002 and at Cleveland on March 17, 2002… Named NBA Eastern Conference Player of the Week on March 10, 2002, the first Knick to win an NBA monthly or weekly award since Ewing in 1997, with 21.0 points, 13.8 rebounds and .607 shooting over four games… Signed with the Knicks as a free agent on Jan. 22, 1999… A right ankle injury limited him to only 23 combined games in second and third NBA seasons from 1996-98… Traded to Dallas on Feb. 14, 1997 with Sasha Danilovic and Martin Muursepp for Jamal Mashburn… Scored nine points as East starter in Schick Rookie Game at San Antonio in 1996.

PERSONAL: Full name is Kurt Vincent Thomas… Has three daughters: Gabriella, Abigayl and Isabella… Father, John, is a computer programmer for Texas Instruments and mother, Angela, works for the U.S. Postal Service in Dallas… Graduated from TCU with a psychology degree and a minor in criminal justice… All-City and All-State selection as a junior at Hillcrest High School in Dallas… Broke his ankle in his senior year and missed half the season… Enjoys reading black, female authors (favorite book is Waiting to Exhale by Terry McMillan)… One of the game's most community-minded players, expanding youth-oriented efforts both in New York and in his native Texas… Winner of the NBA Community Assist Award for June 2004… Received the 2001 "Beyond The Game" Award from the World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame on Dec. 11, 2001… Located in Boise, Idaho, the organization annually selects a player from pro sports who goes beyond the boundary of the court and into the community to lead by example and serve others… Rang the opening bell at the New York Stock Exchange to kick off the fifth year of the Kurt Thomas Investment Challenge on Feb. 23, 2005… Presented by Merrill Lynch, the Challenge supports New York City high school students as they participate in the Stock Market Game program, the largest stock market simulation program in the nation… Serves as spokesperson for the National Neurofibromatosis Foundation, which seeks a cure for the genetic children's disease that causes tumors to grow on the nerves… Released his second Kurt Thomas: Playing With Heart children's color book on Jan. 29, 2001… Over 5,000 copies of the book were donated to schools throughout New York City… Proceeds go to Literacy Instruction for Texas (LIFT), which Kurt has been involved with since his days at TCU.

SUNS CLINCH SECOND CONSECUTIVE DIVISION TITLE

Phoenix clinched its second consecutive division title for the first time in franchise and its fifth overall (1980-81, 1992-93, 1994-95, 2004-05) following the L.A. Clippers loss on April 9 vs. the L.A. Lakers… Phoenix has now qualified for the postseason in 26 of the team's 38 seasons, including 16 of the last 18 seasons… Phoenix has never won an NBA title, but has twice reached the NBA Finals (1976 and 1993).

THE LITTLE ENGINE THAT COULD

Suns guard Steve Nash is vying to become only the ninth NBA player (third guard) to win back-to-back league MVP honors and his numbers this season back it up… The reigning league MVP is posted career highs in points (18.8, prev. 17.9 in 2001-02), rebounds (4.2, prev. 3.3 in 2004-05), field goal percentage (.512, prev. .502 in 2004-05), free-throw percentage (franchise-record .921, prev. .916 in 2003-04) and minutes played in 2005-06 (35.4, prev. 34.6 in 2001-02), his 10th NBA campaign… In addition, seven Suns players are averaging career highs in scoring as the club tries to make for the loss of injured All-Star Amaré Stoudemire.

2005-06 Team Notes

LUCKY SEVEN

With last season's leading scorer center Amaré Stoudemire sidelined due to injury for all but three games in the 2005-06 season, the Suns had to replace his explosive scoring (26.0 points in 2004-05, 5th in the NBA) with a balanced offensive attack that featured seven players (excluding rookies), who averaged career highs in scoring this season… They include Leandro Barbosa, Raja Bell, Boris Diaw, Eddie House, James Jones, Shawn Marion and Steve Nash… Nash, Marion, Bell, Diaw and House all cracked the 30-point plateau this season, but Bell, Diaw and House each did it for their first time in their careers in 2005-06 with Phoenix.

SEVEN SUNS POSTED CAREER HIGHS IN SCORING IN 2005-06

Player	05-06 PPG	Prev. Career High	Season	Team
Leandro Barbosa	13.1	7.9	2003-04	Phoenix
Raja Bell	14.7	12.3	2004-05	Utah
Boris Diaw	13.3	4.8	2004-05	Atlanta
Eddie House	9.8	8.0	2001-02	Miami

Shawn Marion	21.8	21.2	2002-03	Phoenix
Steve Nash	18.8	17.9	2001-02	Dallas

THE BIG SHOT

For the second consecutive season the Phoenix Suns set a new NBA record for most three-point field goals (837, 10.2 per game), surpassing the 2004-05 Suns, who were the first team in NBA history to average nine or more treys (796, 9.7)… Phoenix led the NBA this season in three-point field goals attempted (25.6) after averaging 24.7 one year ago despite the offseason losses of Quentin Richardson (the 2004-05 NBA leader in 3FGM and 3FGA) and Joe Johnson, who combined to shoot 1,002 attempts from behind the arc… The Suns set a franchise record with 20 three-pointers vs. New Orleans/Oklahoma City on April 17.

SCORING MACHINE

For the second year in a row, the Phoenix Suns led the NBA in scoring and were one of only five teams (Denver, Seattle, Toronto, Washington) who reached the century mark despite losing three-fifths of its starting lineup from last season (Amaré Stoudemire – Injury; Joe Johnson and Quentin Richardson – trades) … This year's Suns squad was the first team in NBA history to lead the league in scoring, field goal percentage, three-point percentage and free-throw percentage... Phoenix also was tops in assists... The Suns replaced last season's star-studded starting five with a balanced lineup that featured nine players averaging 9.3 or more points.

2005-06 Team Notes

"3-D" - NBA'S MOST IMPROVED PLAYER IN 2005-06?

Projected to be the team's backup point guard heading into training camp and listed as a guard in the team's 2005-06 media guide, Boris Diaw has instead emerged as a force on the Suns frontline, starting at both center and power forward this season… Diaw, who wasn't known for his offensive ability after averaging 4.6 points in his first two NBA seasons with Atlanta prior to 2005-06, averaged a career-best 13.3 points and was one of only three NBA players (LeBron James, Jason Kidd) to average at least six rebounds and six assists… In 142 career games with the Hawks, Diaw scored in double figures 14 times, but he did it 61 times in 2005-06… Diaw, who has earned the nickname 3-D because of his versatility, has filled up the box score this season, dishing out five or more assists 62 times and grabbing five or more rebounds 61 times.

SUNS-MAVERICKS ALL-TIME PLAYOFF HISTORY:

The Suns won their only playoff series ever against the Mavericks 4-2 in the 2005 Western Conference Semifinals... Phoenix advanced to the conference finals exactly 12 years to the day after last clinching a Western Conference Finals berth on May 20, 1993... In his first playoff series against his former club, Steve Nash averaged a team-high 30.3 points and 12.0 assists on 55 percent shooting in six games.... Nash joined Wilt Chamberlain and Michael Jordan as the only players to score 40-plus points in one playoff game and then collect a triple-double in the next game... Scored career-high 48 points (regular season and playoffs) in Game 4 of the conference semifinals on May 15, 2005 and followed that effort with 34 points, career playoff-high 13 rebounds and 12 assists in a Game 5 victory vs. Dallas on May 18.

MAVERICKS PLAYOFF HISTORY:

This is the 12th appearance for the Mavericks in the NBA postseason and Dallas has an overall 46-58 (.442) record in the postseason... Current Suns guard Steve Nash is the Mavericks' all-time playoff assist leader (324), while current Mav Dirk Nowitzki entered the 2006 NBA Playoffs as the franchise's all-time leading scorer (1,332)... In 2005, the Mavericks ousted the Rockets 4-3 in the first round before losing to Phoenix 4-2 in the conference Semifinals... In 2003, the Mavs were defeated in the Western Conference Finals by the eventual World Champion San Antonio Spurs (4-2)...In 2001, the Mavericks were defeated by San Antonio (4-1) in the conference semifinals... Prior to 2001, Dallas had missed the playoffs for 10-consecutive seasons and had not made the playoffs since 1990 when they were eliminated by Portland in the first round (3-0)... In 1988, Dallas advanced to the Western Conference Finals for the first time, but were defeated by the eventual World Champion Los Angeles Lakers (4-3)... The Mavericks were crowned Midwest Division Champions in 1987, but lost in the first round to Seattle (3-1)... The Mavericks first appeared in the playoffs in 1984 when they were eliminated by LA Lakers (4-1)... Dallas made five-straight playoff appearances from 1984-1988.

PHOENIX SUNS — DALLAS MAVERICKS GAME-BY-GAME

SUNS 117, MAVERICKS 104 at Phoenix

April 13, 2006 (Game 78; Overall 52-26; Home 30-10; Away 22-16)

The Phoenix Suns used the three-point shot early and often to down the Dallas Mavericks, who dropped their second game in a row after trying to pick up their franchise-record tying 60th victory…. Phoenix shot 16-of-24 (.667) from behind the arc, including 8-of-9 (.889) in the first quarter as the Suns scored a Mavericks opponent first season-high 36 points to take a 11-point lead after 12 minutes… Tim Thomas scored 14 of his 22 points in the first quarter and finished the game with a season-high six 3-pointers (on only seven attempts)… Dirk Nowitzki notched his 35th double-double of the season with 36 points and 11 rebounds, but was the only Maverick scorer to top 20 points… Phoenix had three players score 20 or more, including Thomas, Shawn Marion (team-high 29 points) and Raja Bell (21 points, 5-5 3FG)… Phoenix's 16 3-pointers marked the fifth time this season that the club has made 16 or more three-pointers in a single game – all were home games… Phoenix led by as many as 21 points, but Dallas trimmed the Suns lead to 100-94 with 5:33 left in regulation… Phoenix then re-inserted its entire starting lineup to jumpstart a 10-4 run to take a 110-98 lead with 2:54 remaining in the game as the Suns held a double-digit lead the remainder of the game… The Suns' 117 points marked the second-most total points the Mavericks have given up this season, 24 more than their season average of 92.8 entering the game.

SUNS 115, MAVERICKS 107 at Dallas

March 5, 2006 (Game 58; Overall 41-17; Home 24-8; Away 17-9)

The Phoenix Suns stunned the Dallas Mavericks to win their season-best 10th victory in a row and snapped the Mavericks' franchise-record 16-game home winning streak… Phoenix trailed by as many as 13 points in the second half, but outscored the Mavericks 34-18 in the final period, including a 16-6 run to start the fourth quarter… Boris Diaw notched his second career triple-double with 24 points, 10 rebounds and 10 assists… Steve Nash added a game-high 25 points and 11 assists as Diaw and Nash became the first NBA duo since Denver's Andre Miller and Earl Boykins (March 16-18, 2005) to record double figures in assists in consecutive games… Dirk Nowitzki led the Mavericks with 25 points, but had only three points on 1-of-5 shooting from the field in the fourth quarter… Phoenix scored 115 points, its 21st consecutive game scoring in triple figures… The Suns committed six turnovers in the opening quarter, but had only six for the remainder of the game… Shawn Marion added to his league-leading double-double total with his 45th with 22 points and 10 rebounds… Leandro Barbosa scored 20 of the team's 35 points off the bench.

MAVERICKS 102, SUNS 96 at Dallas

December 14, 2005 (Game 21; Overall 13-8; Home 9-5; Away 4-3)

The Phoenix Suns dropped its third consecutive game for the first time this season and failed to score 100 points for the fourth game in a row for the first time since midway through the 2003-04 season… The Mavericks outmuscled a Suns team that played only seven players, outscoring the Suns 52-30 in points in the paint and holding a 54-44 advantage in the battle of the boards… Phoenix led 15-8 to start the game, but the Mavericks took the lead for good at the 4:05 mark of the first quarter... Had Shawn Marion's three-point attempt with 1:54 gone in, the Suns would have tied the score at 97-97… Marion led the Suns with 23 points and a season-high 19 rebounds, but he couldn't outdo the Mavericks duo of Dirk Nowitzki (game-high 29 points, 13 rebounds) and Josh Howard (15 points, career-high 18 rebounds)… Steve Nash scored 16 of his 20 points on 6-of-18 shooting (33.3 percent) in the first half and the NBA's assist leader finished with only five assists… The Suns shot a season-low 39.8 percent (37-93) and the team's bench scored a season-low 15 points.

MAVERICKS 111, SUNS 108 20T at Phoenix

November 1, 2005 (Game 1; Overall 0-1; Home 0-1; Away 0-0)

The Dallas Mavericks rallied from a 17-point deficit to defeat the Suns in both club's season opener… After the Suns built the biggest lead of the game for either team, 83-66, with 7:44 remaining in the fourth quarter, Dallas stormed back with a 21-3 run to take their first lead, 87-86, since 10:09 was left in the first half… Dirk Nowitzki, who led the Mavericks with 28 points, scored 11 points during the critical run… The game marked the Suns first double-overtime game since Nov. 29, 2000 (109-106 loss at Vancouver) and the Suns fell to 0-3 in opening night overtime games and 20-18 overall on Opening Night… After averaging 30.3 points and 12.0 assists against the Mavericks in the 2005 Western Conference Semifinals, Steve Nash finished with a game-high 30 points and nine assists… Phoenix held a 53-43 halftime lead despite Shawn Marion scoring only two points in the first half… Marion finished with 13 points, 16 rebounds, but shot only 5-of-15 from the field (.333).

SUNS-NUGGETS ALL-TIME PLAYOFF HISTORY:

The Suns and Nuggets have met three times in NBA Playoff action ... All three were opening round series in the 1980s (1981-82, 1982-83, 1988-89)... The Suns have won two of the three all-time postseason series against the Nuggets... In 1981-82, the Suns won the best-of-three series, 2-1, while the Nuggets returned the favor in 1982-83, bouncing the Suns from the playoffs in three games...The Nuggets won the first-ever postseason meeting between the two teams on April 20, 1982 behind a game-high 29 points from current Nuggets General Manager Kiki Vandeweghe...The 1988-89 Suns swept the Nuggets in three games behind guard Kevin Johnson who averaged 30.7 points in the series, the highest scoring average ever against the Nuggets in a three-game series.

NUGGETS PLAYOFF HISTORY:

This is the Nuggets' 17th playoff appearance since joining the NBA in 1976-77... Denver owns an overall postseason record of 41-67 (.380)... An ABA club from 1967-1976, the franchise made seven ABA playoff appearances and posted a 27-35 postseason record (.436)... Denver is making its third consecutive postseason appearance after being shut out the previous eight seasons (1995-03).. In 2005-06, the Nuggets placed first in their division for the first time since 1987-88... In 2005, the Nuggets grabbed the conference's seventh seed, but were defeated in the opening round by the eventual NBA Champion San Antonio Spurs (4-1)...The Nuggets have earned three consecutive playoff berths for the first time since doing it nine in a row from 1981-82 through 1989-90... Denver has not won a playoff series since 1994 when the eighth-seeded Nuggets upset the top-seeded Seattle SuperSonics in the first round... Nuggets legend Alex English leads the franchise in eight postseason categories, including games played (59), points (1,540), field goals made (620), field goals attempted (1,250), free-throws made (300), free-throws attempted (345), offensive rebounds (150) and assists (280).

The Clippers last playoff win was May 1, 1993 against the Houston Rockets and their last playoff series win came as the Buffalo Braves against the Philadelphia 76ers in the 1975-76 season (2-1)... The Buffalo Braves were eliminated in the Eastern Conference Semifinals in 1974 (2-4 vs. Celtics), 1975 (3-4 vs. Bullets) and 1976 (2-4 vs. Celtics).

2006 Playoff Opponents

PHOENIX SUNS — LOS ANGELES CLIPPERS GAME-BY-GAME

CLIPPERS 119, SUNS 105 at Phoenix

April 5, 2006 (Game 74; Overall 49-25; Home 28-10; Away 21-15)

The Phoenix Suns suffered their second-worst home loss of the season, trailing only a 24-point loss vs. the San Antonio Spurs on March 9 when the club played without an injured Steve Nash… Phoenix fell to 7-8 following a season-best 11-game win streak and the Clippers went 14 games above .500 for the first time since the 1974-75 season when the team was in Buffalo… The Clippers outscored the Suns 29-16 in the third quarter and used a 14-4 run to a take a 75-65 lead with 4:38 to go in the quarter… Phoenix never got closer than eight points after that… Elton Brand scored 23 of his game-high 34 points in the first half and added a game-high tying 15 rebounds for his 42nd double-double of the season… Sam Cassell (hyperextended right knee) was a late scratch and missed only his second game of the season… Shaun Livingston (12 points, 13 assists) recorded a career high in assists in the start in place of Cassell, the second time he's done that in 2005-06 (prev. 12, Feb. 8, 2006 at Detroit)… Phoenix led 35-29 after the first quarter, but were outscored 59-36 in the second and third quarters combined… Boris Diaw led the Suns with 24 points (12-15 FG) and seven assists… The NBA leaders in three-point shooting, started the game shooting 6-of-10 from the field (.600), but subsequently went 7-of-26 (.269) from long range.

SUNS 126, CLIPPERS 95 at Phoenix

March 15, 2006 (Game 64; Overall 45-19; Home 26-9; Away 19-10)

The Pacific Division-leading Phoenix Suns stretched their lead 7.5 games over second-place Clippers with a 31-point victory, matching the Clippers' worst loss of the season (other, 97-128, vs. Houston on Feb. 14)… Steve Nash led a balanced scoring attack that featured seven players in double figures and finished with a game-high 25 points and 12 assists before sitting out the fourth quarter in a Suns' blowout… Phoenix scored 100 points by the end of the third quarter for the second-straight night and after scoring 129 points at Seattle in the first game of a back-to-back set, the Suns followed up with 126 points, including 73 first-half points… Shawn Marion added to his league-leading double-double total with his 51st of the season with 14 points and a game-high 12 rebounds… The Suns limited the Clippers to 34.3 percent shooting and 95 points after their previous four opponents averaged 52.2 percent shooting and 112.5 points… Phoenix shot 16-of-31 (.556) from three-point range and were led by Nash's six 3-pointers.

SUNS 112, CLIPPERS 102 at Los Angeles

January 18, 2006 (Game 38; Overall 25-13; Home 15-6; Away 10-7)

After suffering their worst lost in over two seasons one night earlier at Sacramento, the Phoenix Suns rebounded with a convincing victory over the second-place Los Angeles Clippers, who now trail the Pacific Division-leading Suns by 3.5 games … The Suns took a 67-48 advantage into the break and claimed their largest lead when Steve Nash buried a 3-pointer that made it 72-51 with 9:59 left in the third period… Phoenix took control early and led 67-48 at the half… Phoenix had five players score in double figures, including a game-high 30 points and 17 rebounds from Shawn Marion… Nash chipped in with 20 points and 18 assists as the Suns won for the 10th time in their last 13 games… Leandro Barbosa tallied 21 points, his most points scored since the fifth game of the season vs. Detroit on Nov. 10… The Suns outscored the Clippers 21-2 in fastbreak points and made 11 3-pointers (26 attempts) to the Clippers' one (seven attempts)… The Clippers were led in scoring by Sam Cassell, who had 27 points and five assists… The Clippers outrebounded Phoenix 51-35… Phoenix committed only nine turnovers and had 32 assists on 42 field goals made.

CLIPPERS 101, SUNS 91 at Los Angeles

December 10, 2005 (Game 19; Overall 13-6; Home 9-4; Away 4-2)

Playing their fifth game in seven days, the Phoenix Suns offense sputtered and the NBA's longest winning steak to-date this season came to an end (nine) as the Los Angeles Clippers took sole possession of the lead in the Pacific Division… Phoenix led 57-53 at the half, but could only muster 34 points in the second half as the team shot only 13-of-36 (36.1 percent) in the second half… The Suns also had to overcome game-ending injuries to James Jones in the first half and Leandro Barbosa in the second half, along with foul trouble to several key players… Barbosa's jump shot with 11:49 remaining in the fourth quarter cut the Clippers lead to 83-78, but the Suns did not score again until 3:40 remaining… The Clippers had three players score 20-plus points, including Elton Brand, who posted team highs of 27 points and 13 rebounds… Phoenix countered with Shawn Marion scoring a team-high 20 points, while Steve Nash (16 points, game-high 11 assists) and Kurt Thomas (13 points, game-high 17 rebounds) added double-doubles.

SUNS-LAKERS ALL-TIME PLAYOFF HISTORY:

The Suns and Lakers have met nine times in NBA Playoff action, and most recently, in 2001, when the Suns lost to the eventual world champions (4-1) in the Western Conference Semifinals... L.A. jumped out to a 3-0 lead, but the Suns stayed alive with a 117-98 win at AWA, which included Jason Kidd's first career playoff triple-double in Game 4 with 22 points, 10 rebounds and 16 assists... The Lakers won other series in 1970 (4-3), 1980 (4-1), 1982 (4-0), 1984 (4-2), 1985 (3-0) and 1989 (4-0)... Phoenix won two-straight series in 1990 (4-1) and 1993 (3-2)... The clubs have meet twice in the Western Conference Finals (1984, 1989)... Magic Johnson dominated the Suns in the postseason, guiding the Lakers to a 23-4 mark in six playoff meetings vs. the Purple Gang... As a rookie in 1980, he averaged 15.4 points, 10.4 rebounds and 11.0 assists and led the eventual World Champion Lakers to a 4-1 victory over the Suns... His 24 assists in Game 2 of the Western Conference Finals in 1984 gave him a share of an NBA Playoff record with John Stockton.

LAKERS PLAYOFF HISTORY:

This is the Lakers' 53rd appearance in postseason play and the 28th in the last 30 years… At one point, they made 25-straight trips to the postseason from 1949 to 1974… The Laker dynasty is responsible for 14 NBA Championships and they made it to the NBA Finals 27 times… The Lakers captured the team's third consecutive NBA title in 2002, defeating Portland (3-0), San Antonio (4-1), Sacramento (4-3) and New Jersey (4-0) in the NBA Finals… The Lakers won titles over Indiana in 2000 and Philadelphia in 2001... The Lakers are 379-250 all-time in the postseason and own the highest overall playoff winning percentage in league history (.603)... The Lakers are 314-211 (.598) in the playoffs since moving to Los Angeles in 1961.

PHOENIX SUNS — LOS ANGELES LAKERS GAME-BY-GAME

LAKERS 109, SUNS 89 at Los Angeles

April 16, 2006 (Game 80; Overall 52-28; Home 30-10; Away 22-18)

The Los Angeles Lakers clinched a playoff berth after a one-year absence and a potential first-round playoff matchup against the Suns with a 20-point victory as Kobe Bryant scored 43 points, his 27th 40-point game of the season, including his second in a row against Phoenix (US Airways Center/AWA record 51 points vs. Phoenix on April 7)… For the second game in a row, Phoenix rested guards Steve Nash (right thigh contusion) and Raja Bell (left thigh strain) as the Lakers snapped a seven-game losing streak against the Suns… Boris Diaw notched his second consecutive triple-double with 11 points, 10 rebounds and a game-high 12 assists to become only the fourth player in franchise history to do it in a back-to-back games (Alvan Adams, Charles Barkley, Jason Kidd)… Shawn Marion led the Suns with 29 points, but for the first time this season, Phoenix did not have a single fastbreak point… The Lakers built a 16-1 lead less than four minutes into the game and held a 35-22 advantage after 12 minutes behind Bryant's 14 points… The Lakers led by as many as 26 points and Phoenix never got closer than 11 points in the second half.

SUNS 107, LAKERS 96 at Phoenix

April 7, 2006 (Game 75; Overall 50-25; Home 29-10; Away 21-15)

The Phoenix Suns won their seventh consecutive game against the Lakers and 50th game of the season despite a US Airways Center/AWA building record 51 points from Kobe Bryant (prev. 50, Amaré Stoudemire vs. Portland on Jan. 2, 2005 and Cliff Robinson on Jan. 16, 2000)… Phoenix led from start to finish, but after the Lakers closed to within one, 80-79, after three quarters, the Suns opened the fourth quarter on an 18-4 run to take a 98-83 lead with 5:31 to go in the game... The Suns outscored LA 27-17 in the fourth, as the Lakers shot 6-of-18 (.333) from the field… After combining for 22 points and 14 assists in the Suns previous two games (both losses), Steve Nash rebounded with a team-high 25 points and a game-high eight assists… Leandro Barbosa added 23 points off the bench, while Shawn Marion scored 10 of his 12 points in the fourth quarter to notch his career-high 58th double-double of the season (game-high 14 rebounds)… Bryant became the sixth player (7th overall) to score 40 or more points against Phoenix in 2005-06… His 51 points were tied for third most ever scored against Phoenix… The Lakers' seven-game skid against Phoenix is the longest active losing streak vs. any NBA opponent.

January 20, 2006 (Game 39; Overall 26-13; Home 16-6; Away 10-7)

The Phoenix Suns used a second-quarter surge to wipe out a 10-point deficit and won their sixth consecutive game over the Los Angeles Lakers for the first time in series history... The series spans 38 years, dating back to 1968… With the Suns trailing 35-25 with 7:51 remaining in the second quarter, Phoenix used a 22-4 to take a 47-39 advantage with 1:21 to go in the half… Eddie House, who outscored the Lakers bench 19-13, scored 12 points during the run…. The NBA's leading scorer Kobe Bryant scored a game-high 37 points, but shot only 12-of-33 (.364) from the field and scored 25 of his points after the Suns took their biggest lead of the game, 77-57, with 2:14 to go in the third quarter… Bryant's 33 field goal attempts were a Suns opponent season high… Shawn Marion led the Suns with 22 points and a game-high 16 rebounds for his 30th double-double, his sixth consecutive season with 30 or more double-doubles… Steve Nash added 17 points and a game-high 12 assists for his 12th double-double in the club's last 14 games (11-3 record)... Lamar Odom notched his team-leading 15th double-double by the end of the first half and finished with 15 points, 12 rebounds and a team-high four assists.

SUNS 122, LAKERS 112 at Los Angeles

For the second consecutive game the Suns built a 17-point lead in the fourth quarter, but unlike the season opener vs. Dallas on Nov. 1, the Suns made clutch baskets down the stretch to capture their first victory of the 2005-06 season… Phoenix overcame a game-high 39 points from Kobe Bryant… The Suns clicked offensively scoring 122 points, including seven players in double figures… Phoenix shot above 50 percent from the field (.506) and made 10-of-23 shots from behind the arc (.435)… Shawn Marion led the Suns with 30 points and 11 rebounds for his second double-double of the season, while Steve Nash chipped in with his first double-double of the season with 12 points and 17 assists.

SUNS-GRIZZLIES ALL-TIME PLAYOFF HISTORY:

The Suns and Grizzlies met for the first time in the first round of the 2005 postseason... Phoenix swept the Grizzlies 4-0 to earn their first sweep ever in a best-of-seven series... Shawn Marion recorded a double-double in each game and averaged 21.3 points, a team-high 12.5 rebounds, 2.25 blocks and shot .554 (36-65) from the field in the series.

GRIZZLIES PLAYOFF HISTORY:

The Grizzlies will make their third consecutive playoff appearance (and third all-time) in 10 years of operation... Memphis is still seeking its first postseason victory (0-8)... The Grizzlies made their NBA postseason debut in 2004 as the sixth seed in the Western Conference, qualifying for the first time in their franchise's short history... Memphis was swept in the opening round of the 2004 NBA Playoffs by the San Antonio Spurs (4-0) and again in the opening round of the 2005 NBA Playoffs by the Phoenix Suns (4-0) after qualifying as the eighth seed.

PHOENIX SUNS — MEMPHIS GRIZZLIES GAME-BY-GAME

SUNS 108, GRIZZLIES 102 at Phoenix

February 8, 2006 (Game 49; Overall 32-17; Home 18-8; Away 14-9)

The Phoenix Suns earned their first victory over the Memphis Grizzlies since a 4-0 sweep in the first round of the 2005 NBA Playoffs… The Suns avoided the Grizzlies' first-ever sweep over the Suns, who lost the first two meetings against Memphis… Behind a 42-point second quarter, the Suns scored 108 against the NBA's top ranked defense, the second-highest point total scored against the Grizzlies in 2005-06… The Grizzlies opened the game on a 15-5 run with 6:15 remaining in the first quarter, but the Suns outscored Memphis 36-12 over the next 10:41 and took a 41-27 lead with 7:34 to go in the first half… Phoenix led 64-46 at halftime and never trailed after that… Leandro Barbosa came off the bench to score a game-high 24 points, including 12 points in the second quarter… The 24 points were the second-highest point total of his career, trailing only his 27-point effort in his first career start at Chicago on Jan. 5, 2004… Despite fouling out, Shawn Marion notched his NBA-leading 38th double-double with 21 points and a game-high 16 rebounds… Steve Nash had 14 points and a game-high 10 assists for his first double-double since Jan. 26 (28th overall)… The Grizzlies allowed an opponent to score 100 or more points for only the seventh time this season, and for the first time in back-to-back games… The Grizzlies made a late run, outscoring the Suns 27-17 in the fourth period… Memphis trimmed the lead to 106-102 with 7.7 seconds remaining and all 27 points were scored by the team's reserves in the quarter… Bobby Jackson led the Grizzlies in scoring with 17 points, but shot only 4-of-19 from the field (.219).

GRIZZLIES 91, SUNS 87 at Memphis

December 17, 2005 (Game 23; Overall 14-9; Home 9-5; Away 5-4)

Playing their ninth game in the last 13 nights, the Phoenix Suns rallied late in the fourth quarter to tie the score 82-82 with 2:40 to go with a 12-1 run, but ran out of gas in game's final minutes as the Memphis Grizzlies snapped a three-game losing streak… Phoenix concluded its three games in four days road trip with a 1-2 record and lost four of its last five games after posting a season-best nine-game win streak… The Suns failed to hit the century mark in scoring for the fifth time in the last six games and shot a season-low 37.5 percent from the field (36-96 FG) against the NBA's top-ranked defensive club… Eddie House led the Suns in scoring in the second consecutive game with 21 points off the bench… The Suns got double-double performances from Shawn Marion (16 points, team-high 17 rebounds, career-high tying six blocks) and Boris Diaw (11 points, 11 rebounds, team-high eight assists) in the loss, but the Grizzlies countered with six players scoring in double figures, including Mike Miller, who recorded his first double-double (team-high 14 points, team-high 11 rebounds)… The Suns set a new franchise low with four free-throw attempts (prev. 6, 4/15/01 vs. Sacramento) and tied a team low with three free-throws made (others, vs. Seattle, 2/6/04 and vs. Denver, 12/23/96)… For the third consecutive game, the shorthanded Suns played with only seven players.

GRIZZLIES 115, SUNS 103 at Phoenix

November 16, 2005 (Game 7; Overall 3-4; Home 1-4; Away 2-0)

The Suns continued to struggle at home, falling to 1-4 at AWA as the Grizzlies improved to a franchise-record 6-3 start… Leading 58-54 at the start of the third quarter, Memphis went on a 16-4 run and took a 74-58 lead with 7:48 remaining… The Suns trimmed the Grizzlies' lead to 105-96 with 3:50 remaining, but never came any closer… Shawn Marion recorded his seventh double-double with 23 points and 11 rebounds, but his efforts were overshadowed by the Grizzlies duo of Damon Stoudamire (26 points) and Mike Miller (24 points)… The Suns were outrebounded 42-37 and had yet to outrebound an opponent this season… Phoenix did outscore Memphis 29-9 in fastbreak points.

SUNS-KINGS ALL-TIME PLAYOFF HISTORY:

The Suns and Kings have met four times in the postseason and once since the Kings moved to Sacramento in 1985... The Suns own a 10-9 record against the Kings in the playoffs... In 2001, Sacramento defeated the Suns 3-1 in the first round... The Suns and Kings met three consecutive years in NBA postseason play: 1979, 1980 and 1981, all while the team was still in Kansas City...The Suns won two of the three matchups... The Suns defeated the Kings 4-1 in the 1979 conference semifinals... In Game 1, Paul Westphal scored 25 points, and he led the Suns in scoring in three of the five games... The next season, the Suns defeated the Kings in the first round, 2-1, with each team winning a game before the Suns clinched the series... In 1981, the Kings, led by Cotton Fitzsimmons, defeated the Suns, 4-3, in the Western Conference Semifinals... Dennis Johnson led the team in scoring five of the seven games.

KINGS PLAYOFF HISTORY:

The Kings are making their eighth straight playoff appearance, the most consecutive playoff appearances in franchise history... It's the 10th time the team has been to the NBA postseason since moving to Sacramento in 1985 and 29th overall... The franchise has a 78-103 (.431) record in the postseason, including a 33-37 mark (.471) in Sacramento... Last season the sixth-seeded Sacramento was eliminated in the first round vs. Seattle (4-1)... In 2002, Sacramento was eliminated by the eventual NBA champion L.A. Lakers (4-3) in the Western Conference Finals after the Kings defeated Utah (3-1) and Dallas (4-1)... In 2001, Sacramento defeated the Suns 3-1 in the first round but lost to the Lakers (4-0) in the conference semifinals... When the franchise was the Rochester/Cincinnati Royals, it appeared in the playoffs 14 times, winning the NBA Championship in 1950-51 vs. New York (4-3)...Hall of Famer Oscar Robertson owns several Kings franchise playoff records, including a King playoff-high 43 points scored twice.

SUNS 123, KINGS 110 at Sacramento

April 11, 2006 (Game 77; Overall 51-26; Home 29-10; Away 22-16)

The Suns erased a 17-point first-half deficit to by outscoring the Kings 72-42 in the second half and won at ARCO Arena for only the second time in the last 12 meetings… Sacramento shot 64.7 percent in the first half and scored 38 second-quarter points to take a 68-51 lead at the half… The 17-point comeback was the team's largest rally of the Suns… The Suns defense rallied in the second half limiting the Kings to 42.9 percent shootng while shooting a blistering 71.1 percent in the second half… Raja Bell led the comeback by scoring 16 of his 25 points in the second half and was one of seven Suns to score in double figures… Ron Artest, Brad Miller and Mike Bibby each scored 23 points for the Kings, who have lost the last two meetings against Phoenix after winning the first two meetings in 2005-06… Phoenix connected on 11-of-18 field goal attempts (61.1 percent) in the third quarter to tie the game at 84 to open the fourth quarter… Steve Nash notched his 42nd double-double of the season with 13 points and 13 assists… Phoenix outrebounded Sacramento 38-32.

SUNS 112, KINGS 104 at Phoenix

February 10, 2006 (Game 50; Overall 33-17; Home 19-8; Away 14-9)

The Phoenix Suns held off a pesky Sacramento Kings team that trimmed a 20-point Suns lead to two points in the final three minutes… After the Suns matched their biggest lead of the game, 96-76, Sacramento used a 26-8 run to pull within two, 104-102, with 2:49 to go in the game… The Suns countered with an 8-2 run to seal the victory and put the Suns 16 games above .500 for the first time this season… Steve Nash led a Suns scoring attack that had six players score in double figures… Nash recorded his 29th double-double of the season with a team-high 24 points and a game-high 13 assists, while his counterpart, Mike Bibby, was held to seven points on 2-of-9 shooting (.222)… The Suns shot 40-of-78 (.513) from the field, including 8-of-17 from behind the arc (.471)… Ron Artest scored a game-high 28 points, his most points scored since his trade from Indiana on Jan. 25… Shawn Marion had 18 points and seven rebounds, and became just the second player in franchise history to grab 5,000 rebounds by collecting his fifth board with 11:38 remaining in the first half.

KINGS 119, SUNS 90 at Sacramento

January 17, 2006 (Game 37; Overall 24-13; Home 15-6; Away 9-7)

The Phoenix Suns were manhandled by a shorthanded Sacramento Kings team that defeated the Suns for the 10th time in the last 11 meetings at ARCO Arena... The 29-point loss equaled the worst defeat since Mike D'Antoni took over as Suns head coach on Dec. 10, 2003 (105-76 loss at San Antonio on March 27, 2004)… Playing without three starters (Peja Stojakovic, Shareef Abdur-Rahim, Bonzi Wells) the Kings scored a Suns opponent non-overtime season-high 119 points on 51.1 percent shooting (45-88 FG)… Phoenix tied a season low by shooting 37.5 percent (33-88 FG) from the field and only three players scored in double figures… Shawn Marion led the Suns with 25 points, but his nine-game double-double streak was snapped when he was held to five rebounds… The Kings received a huge boost from an unlikely trio and one All-Star… Kevin Martin (25 points) and rookie Francisco Garcia (21 points) recorded career highs in scoring while Kenny Thomas added 22 points and a season-high 15 rebounds… All-Star center Brad Miller just missed a triple-double with 18 points, 12 rebounds and nine assists… The Kings shot 12-of-24 from three-point range (.500), the most 3-pointers made against Phoenix in 2005-06… Reserve Leandro Barbosa tallied 13 points, his first game scoring in double figures since injuring his left knee at San Antonio on Nov. 19… Phoenix led 21-16 with 2:53 remaining in the first quarter, but Sacramento closed the period on a 16-2 run to take a 32-23 lead at the end of the first quarter… The Suns trailed by as many as 33 points, also a season high… For only the second game this season, the Suns trailed their opponent in assists, 26-20.

SUNS 112, KINGS 104 at Phoenix

November 6, 2005 (Game 4; Overall 2-2; Home 0-2; Away 2-0)

The Suns' fourth quarter comeback fell just short as the Kings managed to stave off the Suns late rally… Trailing 104-91 with 9:03 remaining in the fourth quarter, Phoenix went on a 20-6 run to take a 111-110 lead with 3:06 remaining in the game… However, after missing two free throws with 1:16 remaining, Shareef Abdur-Rahim scored the team's final four points over the final 21.5 seconds… Phoenix had eight players score in double figures and its bench contributed 51 points, including a team-high 23 points from Leandro Barbosa, who played the entire fourth quarter and scored 12 points… Shawn Marion (16 points, 14 rebounds), Steve Nash (18 points, 13 assists) and Boris Diaw (11 points, 11 assists, 9 rebounds) all recorded double-doubles for the Suns… Phoenix led 60-55 at the half, but Peja Stojakovic scored 23 of the Kings' 39 third-quarter points, finishing only three points shy of the AWA record for most points scored in a quarter (Stephon Marbury vs. San Antonio, 11/29/02)… Stojakovic led all scorers with 33 points.

SUNS-SPURS ALL-TIME PLAYOFF HISTORY:

The Suns and Spurs have met six times in the NBA Playoffs: 1992, 1993, 1996, 1998, 2000, 2003 and 2005... San Antonio owns a slight edge over the Suns (15-17), but Phoenix has a 10-7 advantage at home and an 8-7 mark at the US Airways Center (formerly known as America West Arena)… In 2005, the Spurs defeated the Suns 4-1 in the Suns first Western Conference Finals appearance since 1993, and Amare Stoudemire broke Kareem Abdul-Jabbar's record for highest scoring average (34.2, 1970) for a player in his first conference finals by averaging 37.0 points in five games against the Spurs.... In 2003, the Spurs eliminated the Suns (4-2) in the first round, while in 2000, the Suns ousted the Spurs (3-1) in the first round... In 1992, the clubs met in the first round as the Suns swept the Spurs (3-0) In 1993. The teams met in the Western Conference Semifinals as the Suns came up with a 4-2 series victory, winning three home games and Game 6 in San Antonio on Charles Barkley's game-winner... In 1996, the Suns entered the playoffs as the No. 7 seed in the West, playing without Michael Finley, and were eliminated in the first round by the Spurs (3-1), as San Antonio's David Robinson averaged 30.0 points and 11.8 rebounds for the series... In 1998, the Suns lost the first round series, 3-1.

SPURS PLAYOFF HISTORY:

This is the 26th appearance for the Spurs in the NBA Playoffs (excludes three ABA postseasons from 1973-76), including their ninth consecutive postseason appearance... Last season, the Spurs won their third NBA title by defeating the Detroit Pistons 4-3 in the 2005 NBA Finals after dispatching Phoenix 4-1 in the Western Conference Finals... Tim Duncan was named NBA Finals MVP for the third time in his career after averaging 20.6 points, 14.1 rebounds and 2.14 blocks in 40.6 minutes... In 2003, the Spurs eliminated the Suns (4-2) in the first round en route to winning their second NBA title behind league and Finals MVP Tim Duncan... In 2000, the Spurs were defeated by the Suns (3-1) in the first round, which is also the last time the Spurs did not advance past the first round... The 1999 Spurs defeated current Suns center Kurt Thomas and the New York Knicks 4-1 in the 1999 NBA Finals and captured the franchise's first-ever championship... Tim Duncan was honored as NBA Finals Most Valuable Player, averaging 27.4 points on 53.4 percent shooting for the series... San Antonio has a 121-108 (.528) overall mark in the NBA Playoffs... Prior to the 2006 NBA Playoffs, Duncan ranked as the franchise postseason leader in points, field goals made, field goals attempted, and rebounds... He's also second in blocks, assists, games, free throws made and free throws attempted.

PHOENIX SUNS — SAN ANTONIO SPURS GAME-BY-GAME

SPURS 108, SUNS 102 at San Antonio

March 17, 2006 (Game 65; Overall 45-20; Home 26-9; Road 19-11)

The Phoenix Suns lost their fifth consecutive regular season game in the Alamo City as the San Antonio Spurs punished the Suns on the boards, nearly doubling the Suns rebound total, 57-29... The 29 rebounds were a season low and the Spurs' 30 offensive boards were an opponent season high and Spurs high... The Suns managed to keep the score close by shooting 51.3 percent (41-80 FG) and scored 102 points against the NBA's top-ranked defensive club... Steve Nash led the way for the Suns with a game-high tying 30 points, but the Spurs' Nazr Mohammed was the game's unlikely hero with a career-high tying 30 points and a team-high 16 rebounds... Shawn Marion added to his league-leading double-double total with his 52nd of the season with 22 points and 12 rebounds... Phoenix lost its 20th game of the season, matching last season's loss total... Tim Duncan had 20 points and 13 rebounds, including a Suns opponent season-high nine offensive rebounds.

SPURS 117, SUNS 93 at Phoenix

March 9, 2006 (Game 60; Overall 42-18; Home 24-9; Road 18-9)

Playing without an injured Steve Nash (right ankle sprain) for the first time this season, the San Antonio Spurs halted the Phoenix Suns' season-best 11-game win streak, tied for second best in team history… The Spurs shot a blistering 55.2 percent from the field (48-87 FG), while limiting the Suns to only 93 points, 15 points fewer than the team's season average... Phoenix did not score 100 points for the first time in 23 games… Tony Parker led the way for the Spurs scoring 29 points and adding five assists before resting in the fourth quarter in a Spurs' blowout… Boris Diaw flirted with another triple-double with 16 points, nine rebounds and nine assists… Shawn Marion notched his league-leading 47th double-double of the season with 18 points and 11 rebounds… Phoenix fell to 2-6 when playing without Nash, dating back to the start of the 2004-05 season… Without Nash, the Spurs backcourt outscored the Suns counterparts, 47-20.

SUNS 91, Spurs 86 at Phoenix

January 7, 2006 (Game 33; Overall 22-11; Home 13-6; Road 9-5)

The Suns finally found a way to defeat the NBA Champion San Antonio Spurs and it wasn't with their top-ranked offense… After losing 13 of the previous 15 meetings, including a 4-1 beating in the 2005 Western Conference Finals, the Suns defense limited the Spurs to 86 points on 41.3 percent shooting (33-80 FG)… The Suns improved to 19-3 this season when holding their opponent under the century mark in scoring… Suns All-Stars Steve Nash (game-highs 22 points and 10 assists) and Shawn Marion (20 points, team-high 10 rebounds) carried the team to victory scoring 21 of the team's 26 points in the final quarter… After the Spurs took their first lead of the game since 2:41 remained in the first quarter, 74-72, with 4:48 to go in the game, Phoenix went on a key 12-3 run to take the Suns' first biggest lead of the game, 84-77, with 2:19 left… During the run, Nash hit the Suns' only two 3-pointers of the game… Suns newcomers James Jones, Kurt Thomas, Raja Bell, Boris Diaw and Eddie House combined to score 49 of the team's 91 points (54 percent)… None were with the team during the Suns' run to the 2005 Western Conference Finals… Tim Duncan added to his NBA-leading double-double total, notching his 26th of the season with 19 points and 12 rebounds… One night after scoring a US Airways Center/AWA record 47 first-quarter points, the Suns were held to a season-low tying 42 first-half points, yet owned a 42-40 lead at the break… The Suns improved to 11-3 this season in back-to-back games while the Spurs fell to 1-5 in the second half of back-to-back set… The Suns improved to 7-1 since Christmas.

SPURS 97, SUNS 91 at San Antonio

November 19, 2005 (Game 9; Overall 4-5; Home 2-4; Road 2-1)

In the first meeting since the 2005 Western Conference Finals, San Antonio edged Phoenix in a closely fought game in which neither team held a double-digit lead… The Suns led the defending NBA champions 53-47 at the half, but lost Leandro Barbosa to a left knee injury with no time remaining in the first half… Barbosa was leading the Suns with 14 points at the time and did not return… Despite Barbosa's loss, the Suns were in it to the end and Shawn Marion's dunk with 1:27 left in regulation cut the Spurs lead to 92-91… Marion led the Suns with 22 points and 15 rebounds, while Steve Nash also added a double-double with 14 points and 10 assists... Tim Duncan led the Spurs with 24 points and 13 rebounds, but was limited to 8-of-19 shooting from the field (.421).

1975-76 (SUNS 42-40 IN REGULAR SEASON)

Beginning with the 1974-75 season, the league was divided into the four divisions and two conferences we know today. Five teams from each conference advanced to the playoffs. The winningest three teams received a bye in the first-round, the remaining two teams played in a best-of-five first-round series. (In 1976 the Suns received the first round bye.) The best-of-seven semifinals pitted the first-place team against the winner of the first-round series and the second and third-place teams against each other, with the winners advancing to the conference finals and the NBA finals.

This procedure changed slightly prior to the start of the 1976-77 season when additional teams were added to the league. At that time, six teams advanced to the playoffs and each of the division winners received a bye to the semifinals. Again, the first-round of the playoffs was a best-of-five series and each of the three following series were best-of-seven.

1983-84 (SUNS 41-41 IN REGULAR SEASON)

The playoff format, as we know it today, was implemented. Eight teams from each conference make the playoffs, with the division winners having the top two seeds in each conference. The first seed goes to the division winner with the best record. The remaining seedings are likewise determined by record.

ROOKIE • UCLA • G/F • 6-7 • 195
NOT ON PLAYOFF ROSTER

2005-06 REGULAR SEASON: Underwent successful right knee microfracture surgery on March 13 and is out approximately six months… Averaged 2.8 points, 1.1 rebounds in 4.3 minutes in rookie season with Phoenix... Scored career-high 10 points, including 2-of-2 shooting from behind the arc, and added a career-high four rebounds in eight minutes vs. Portland on Dec. 6... Made NBA debut vs. Indiana by logging two minutes vs. Indiana on Nov. 30… Made final appearance of season vs. Chicago vs. Chicago on Feb. 4... Assigned to the Albuquerque Thunderbirds of the NBA Development League on Nov. 4… Was the first NBA D-League player to be recalled by his NBA team on Nov. 26... Averaged 16.7 points, 7.7 rebounds, 1.33 steals in 41.7 minutes in three games with the Thunderbirds and was a teammate of former Sun Yuta Tabuse, the first Japanese-born player to play in the NBA.

PRO CAREER: Selected with the 54th overall pick in the second round of the 2005 NBA Draft by New York, but his draft rights were traded to Phoenix along with Kurt Thomas in exchange for Quentin Richardson and the draft rights to Nate Robinson (21st pick) on June 28, 2005… Averaged 7.3 points, 2.3 rebounds and shot .372 (16-43 FG) from the floor in 27.8 minutes per game in six games at the 2005 Reebok Vegas Summer League.

COLLEGE: Averaged 12.5 points, 4.7 rebounds and 1.1 steals in 117 career games (72 starts) in four seasons with UCLA… Averaged 14.0 points or more in final three seasons with the Bruins and led team in scoring in final two seasons… Originally declared for the 2004 NBA Draft and participated in the 2004 NBA Pre-Draft Camp in Chicago, but withdrew his name from consideration… Earned First Team All-Pac 10 honors in senior season, averaging career highs of 18.4 points (fourth in the Pac-10) and 7.9 rebounds (third) in 28 games… Also averaged 34.6 minutes, 2.3 assists, 1.5 steals, and shot .474 from the field (183-386 FG), .374 from three-point range (43-115 3FG) and .787 from the free-throw stripe (107-136 FT)… Finished as the 19th all-time leading scorer in UCLA history (1,458 points) and tied for fifth for three-point field goals made (133)… Thompson's 18.4 scoring average as a senior was the highest by a Bruin since 1998 (J.R. Henderson, 19.0)….Awarded the Coach John Wooden Award as UCLA's Most Valuable Player for the 2004-05 season after sharing the honor with T.J. Cummings in 2003-04… Led the Bruins in scoring 14 occasions and rebounding 20 times in 2004-05… Erupted for a career-high 39 points (7-9 3FG) vs. Arizona State on Feb. 10, 2005 and grabbed career-high 16 rebounds twice (Jan. 6, 2005 vs. Washington State, Nov. 23, 2004 vs. Western Illinois)… Led team in scoring (14.4) and ranked third in rebounding (4.3) as a junior in 2003-04… Recorded season-high 16 points vs. Mississippi in the first round of the NCAA Tournament as a freshman in 2001-02.

PERSONAL: Full name is Dijon (pronounced D'jon) Lynn Thompson… Son of Melvin and Ingrid Drone… Has one sister… Majored in history and considers economics his favorite subject… Patterns his play after Scottie Pippen and admires Michael Jordan… Topped all scorers with 25 points at Magic Johnson's Celebrity & Pro All-Star Charity game in July 2005… Averaged 22.5 points, 8.0 rebounds, 2.5 assists, 3.0 steals and 1.5 blocks, and led Redondo Union High School to a 27-6 record and the Southern Division 2A title in senior season in 2000-01.
